True Time.

Two kinds of time are used in Almanacs; clock or mean-time in some, and apparent or sun-time in others. Clock-time is always right, while Sun-time varies every day. People generally suppose it is twelve o'clock when the sun is due south, or at a properly made noon-mark. But this is a mistake. The sun is seldom on the meridian at twelve o'clock; indeed this is the case only on four days of the year; namely, April 15, June 15, Sept. 1, and Dec. 24. In this Almanac, as in most other Almanacs, the time used is clock-time. The time when the sun is on the meridian or at the noon-mark, is also given to the nearest second, for the 1st, 9th, 17th, and 25th days of each month, at the right hand of the top of each calendar page. This affords a ready means of obtaining correct time and for setting a clock by using a noon-mark, adding or subtracting as the sun is slow or fast.

Old-fashioned Almanacs, which use apparent time, give the rising and setting of the sun's centre and make no allowance for the effect of refraction of the sun's rays by the atmosphere. The more modern and improved Almanacs, which use clock-time, give the rising and setting of the sun's upper limb, and duly allow for refraction. The practice of setting time-pieces by the rising or setting of the sun or moon is not strictly correct, as the unevenness of the earth's surface and intervening objects, such as hills and forests, near the points of rising and setting, occasion a deviation in every place, from the time expressed in the Almanac, which time is adapted to a smooth, level horizon. The only means of keeping correct time is by the use of a noon-mark, or a meridian line.

The above table includes only 33 of the asteroids. Since it was made up, thirteen more have been discovered; making in all at the present time (1855), fifty-one. New discoveries are adding to the number of these every year. Le Verrier, the celebrated French astronomer, says, he is firmly persuaded that there are many more of the asteroids, and that before 1860, probably, in all, one hundred will be discovered.

Leap-Year.

Every year the number of which is divisible by 4 without a remainder, is a leap-year, except the last year of the century, which is a leap-year only when divisible by 400 without a remainder. Thus the year 1900 will not be leap-year.

Tides.

La Place pronounces the formula for deducing the tides the most difficult problem of celestial mechanics. It sometimes happens that the tide comes in several hours later or earlier than the most learned calculation would determine; and this in consequence of the strength and direction of the wind, which the calculator cannot reckon upon.

The Calendar pages exhibit the time of high-water at Boston, New York and Charleston. To find the time of high-water at any of the following places, add to or subtract from the time of high water, morning or evening, at New York, the quantity of time affixed to such place in this table. In using the quantities in this table, observe that more than 12 hours and less than 24, from midnight or the beginning of morning, is afternoon of the same day; and that more than 12 hours and less than 24, from noon, is morning of the next day.

Notes to the Reader.

The Calendar page* in this Almanac is adapted for use in every part of the United States. It is based on the fact, that in the same Latitude, that is, on a line running due east and west, the Sun and Moon rise and set at the same moment by the clock or almucantate, not only throughout the United States, but around the world—the variations being so small as to be of no importance for ordinary purposes. Thus, if on any day the Sun rises at Boston at 5 minutes past 6, it rises at 5 minutes past 6 on the same line of latitude westward throughout the states of Massachusetts, New York, Michigan, Iowa, and the territory of Oregon.

Hence, a Calendar adapted to Boston for New England, is equally adapted, as to the rising and setting of the Sun and Moon, for use in Northern New York and Michigan; a Calendar for New York city is adapted for use in the States of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois; a Calendar for Washington city is adapted for Virginia, Kentucky, and Missouri; and a Calendar for Charleston will answer for North Carolina, Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, and Louisiana. Wherever the reader is, look for the State at the top of the Calendar page, and underneath are the rising and setting of the Sun and Moon sufficiently accurate for all practical purposes.

The changes, fulls, and quarters of the Moon, however, are governed by another principle, and are essentially the same for all places on the same Longitude; that is, on any line extending due north and south. Thus, the Moon's phases for Charleston, suit Pittsburgh, etc. Any phasis takes place at the same instant of absolute time; but the local time is earlier at the westward, and later at the eastward, at the rate of four minutes for each degree of Longitude; or at the rate of one minute for every 12 miles 273 rods in the Latitude of Boston, 13 miles 60 rods in the Latitude of New York city, 13 miles 143 rods in the latitude of Baltimore, and 14 miles 199 rods in the latitude of Charleston.

To Ascertain the Length of the Day and Night,

At any time of the year, add 12 hours to the time of the sun's setting, and from the sum subtract the time of rising, for the length of the day. Subtract the time of setting from 12 hours, and to the remainder add the time of rising next morning, for the length of the night. These rules are equally true for apparent time.

Moonlight.

Professor Smith, the Astronomer Royal for Scotland, in his interesting account of a recent scientific expedition to the Peak of Teneriffe, has set at rest the often-discussed question of the heat of moonlight. He says that his thermometrical instruments were sensibly affected by the moon's rays, even at the lowest of two stations occupied by him at different elevations. In tropical climates, meat which is exposed to moonlight rapidly becomes putrid; and in the West Indies, the negroes, who will lie sweltering and uncovered beneath the full glare of a tropical sun, carefully muffle their heads and faces when exposed to the moonbeams, which they believe will cause swelling and distortion of the features, and sometimes even blindness.

MR. BLIFKINS' BABY.—That first baby was a great institution. As soon as he came into this "breathing world," as the late W. Shakspeare has it, he took command in our house. Everything was subservient to him. The baby was the balance-wheel that regulated everything. He regulated the temperature, he regulated the food, he regulated the servants, he regulated me. For the first six months of that precious existence, he had me up, on an average, six times a night. "Mr. Blifkins," says my wife, "bring that light here, do; the baby looks strangely; I'm so afraid it will have a fit."

Of course the lamp was brought, and of course the baby lay sucking his fist like a little white bear, as he was. "Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, "I think I feel a little air; I wish you would get up and see if the window is not open a little, because baby might get sick." Nothing was the matter with the window, as I knew very well. "Mr. Blifkins," says my wife, just as I was going to sleep again, "that lamp, as you have placed it, shines directly in the baby's eyes—strange that you have no more consideration." I arranged the light, and went to bed again. Just as I was dropping to sleep again, "Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, "did you think to buy that broma to-day for the baby?" "My dear," said I, "will you do me the injustice to believe that I could overlook a matter so essential to the comfort of that inestimable child?" She apologized very handsomely, but made her anxiety the scape-goat. I forgave her, and without saying a word more to her, I addressed myself to sleep. "Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, shaking me, "you must not snore so, you will wake the baby." "Jest so—jest so," said I, half asleep, thinking I was Solon Shingle. "Mr. Blifkins," said my wife, "will you get up and hand me the warm gruel from the nurse lamp for baby? the dear child, if it wasn't for its mother, I don't know who the would do. How can you sleep so, Mr. Blifkins?" "I suspect, my dear," said I, "that it is because I am tired." "Oh, it's very well for you men to talk about being tired!" said my wife: "I don't know what you would say if you had to toil and drudge like a poor woman with a baby." I tried, to soothe her by telling her she had no patience at all, and got up for the posset. Having aided in answering the baby's requirements, I stepped into bed again, with the hope of sleeping. "Mr. Blifkins," said she, in a louder key. I said nothing. "Oh, dear!" said that estimable woman, in great apparent anguish, "how can a man who has arrived at the honor of a live baby of his own, sleep when he don't know that the dear creature will live till morning?" I remained silent, and, after awhile, deeming that Mrs. Blifkins had gone to sleep, I stretched my limbs for repose. How long I slept I don't know, but I was awakened by a furious jab in the forehead by some sharp instrument. I started up, and Mrs. Blifkins was sitting up in the bed, adjusting some portion of the baby's dress. She had, in a state of semi-somnolence, mistaken my head for the pillow, which she customarily used for a nocturnal pin-cushion. I protested against such treatment in somewhat round terms, pointing to several perforations in my forehead. She told me I should willingly bear such things for the sake of the baby. I insisted upon it that I didn't think my duty as a parent to that young immortal required the surrender of my forehead for a pin-cushion. This was one of the many nights passed in this way.

The truth was, that baby was what every other man's first baby is, an autocrat—absolute and unlimited. Such was the story of Blifkins, as he related it to us the other day. It is a little exaggerated picture of almost every man's experience.

Eagle the First—By Alfred Tennyson.

He clasps the crag with crooked hands,
Close to the sun in lonely lands,
Ring'd with the azure world he stands.
The wrinkled sea beneath him crawls;

He watches from his mountain walls,
And like a thunder bolt he falls!

Eagle ye Second—By G. Whillikins.

With hooked claws he clasps ye fence,
Close by ye hen roost; gazing thence
He spies a mice what's got no sense.

Ye mice beneath can't well see him;
He watches from his lofty limb,
Then jumpeth down and grabbeth him.

P. S.—The difference, though only faint
'Twixt that and this I now will paint:—
His eagle's wild, my eagle ain't.

TAKING THE QUARTER.—During the trial of a case in the Essex Common Pleas at Newburyport, a witness who was brought from Plaistow, N. H., was asked by District-Attorney Abbott, "Didn't you boast when you lived at Newburyport, that you were the greatest liar in the city?" The witness looked wise for a minute or two before he answered: "Oh, I know what you mean. You see I went into a room one night and found some half a dozen fellows who seemed to be telling stories. Says one of them, 'Here's ——, he'll take the money.' 'What money?' I asked. 'That quarter on the table,' was the answer; 'the man that tells the biggest lie takes it.' I merely told them that I shouldn't try for it, as I never told a lie in my life, and they gave me the quarter."

"I'm afloat! I'm afloat!" screamed a young lady of powerful lungs, and fingers to match, as she exercised both at the piano.

"I should think you were," growled an old bachelor, "judging from the squall you are raising."

A (N) ICE JOKE.—A newly arrived John Chinaman, in Shasta, California, says an exchange, purchased some ice recently, and finding it very wet, laid it out to dry in the sun. On going to look for it again, he found that it had disappeared, and forthwith accused the whole Chinese neighborhood of larceny. A general riot was the consequence. This is about as good as an anecdote we heard the other day about a lady of the Irish persuasion. Biddy had just arrived and obtained a place to do general housework, soon after which she innocently inquired of her mistress how the ice was to be dressed, and whether it was to be cooked for dinner.

A gentleman who was rather impatient at table declared that he wished he could manage without servants, as they were greater plague than profit. "Why not have a dumb waiter?" suggested a friend. "Oh, no," returned the other, "I have tried them—they don't answer."

An elderly maiden lady requests the insertion of the following:

BAD TASTE—Pretty young girls kissing widowers' children.

"RUNNING" CHURCHES.—A man sitting upon the verandah of an up-country inn, hailed "one of the oldest inhabitants," and inquired the denomination of the church upon the opposite side of the road. The reply was—"Wal, she was a hard shell Baptist, nat'rally, but they don't run her now."

Alexander Dumas, the great playwright and novelist, married his creditor's daughter one day as the most convenient mode which then occurred to him of avoiding the jail. A few months later he saw, by accident, a citizen in the act of kissing his (Dumas) wife. The author of Monte Cristo gazed in amazement for a moment, and then exclaimed—"Good Heavens! and he is not obliged to!"

A woman was testifying in behalf of her son, and swore "that he had worked on a farm ever since he was born."

The lawyer who cross-examined her, said, "You assert that your son has worked on a farm ever since he was born?"

"I do."

"What did he do the first year?"

"He milked."

The lawyer evaporated.

Alum and common salt in equal quantities, powdered and applied to the cavity of an aching tooth, is said to be a certain cure for that terrible ailment.

SERVANT.—“What kind of sauce will you have Mr. Blifkins?”

BLIFKINS.—“I don't allow a servant to give me any kind of sauce.”

“Homestead exemption,” exclaimed Mrs. Partington, throwing down the paper, “it's come to a pretty pass, indeed, that men are going to exempt themselves from home just when they please, without any proviso for cold nights.”

How to MEND CHINA.—From an English almanac we, a long time since, cut a receipt for mending china, and the opportunity having occurred for trying, we found it admirable, the fracture scarcely being visible after the article was repaired. It is thus made: take a very thick solution of gum arabic in water, and stir it into plaster of Paris until the mixture becomes a viscus paste. Apply it with a brush to the fractured edges and stick them together. In three days the article cannot again be broken in the same place. The whiteness of the cement renders it doubly valuable.

A lovesick young pair who had only a dollar To pay to the priest for the conjugal collar, Were told by the parson "his regular fee, For marrying people, was only a V," "Nay, then," quoth the swain, "good parson, now come!

A dollar I'm sure ought to marry us some!
"Tis all I have got; you can take it, you know, And marry as far as the money will go!"

THE EIGHT AGES OF LOVE.—At three years of age we love our mothers; at six our fathers; at ten, holidays; at sixteen, dress; at twenty, our sweethearts; at twenty-five, our wives; at forty, our children; at sixty, ourselves. This is condensed from some practical writer who has experienced them all.

Gent on horseback to boy on a donkey—
"Get out" the way, boy! get out of the way!
my horse don't like donkeys!"

Boy—"Doan't he? then, why don't he kick thee off?"

WHY A MAN MAY MARRY A DECEASED WIFE'S SISTER.—One argument in the British Parliament in favor of letting men marry their deceased wives' sisters, was that by doing so a man had only one mother-in-law instead of two.

ALWAYS WAS A COWARD.—When the question of the emblems and devices of our national arms was before the old Congress, a member from the South warmly opposed the eagle as a monarchical bird. The king of birds could not be a suitable representative of a people whose institutions were founded in hostility to kings. The late Judge Thatcher, then a representative from Massachusetts, in reply, proposed the goose, which he said was a most humble and republican bird, and would in other respects prove advantageous, inasmuch as the goslings would do to put on the ten cent pieces. The laughter which followed at the expense of the Southerner, was more than he could bear. He construed this good-humored irony into an insult, and sent a challenge; the bearer delivered it to Mr. Thatcher, who read and returned it to him, observing that he should not accept it! "What, will you be branded as a coward?" "Yes, sir, if he pleases; I always was a coward, and he knew it, or he never would have challenged me." The joke was too good to be resisted, even by the angry party, and the former cordial intercourse was soon restored.

What is earth, Monarch?—For my realm 'tis given;
 What is earth, Christian?—The gateway of Heaven.

A story is told of a very polite sheriff who came very near being outdone by a person it was the line of his duty to hang. "Sir," said the gentleman, as the sheriff was carefully adjusting the rope, "really your attention deserves my thanks. In fact, I do not know of one I should rather have hang me." "Really," said the sheriff, "you are pleased to be complimentary. I do not know of another individual it would give me so much pleasure to hang."

The following is a passage from the prayer of a clergyman who officiated in the House of Representatives on the last day of the session:

"Be with them in their weakness, strengthen them with thy strength, scan with thy searching eye all their legislative acts, and we pray Thee, O Lord, that thou wilt overrule all their doings!"

KANSAS.

LECOMPTON AND LECOMPTON, JR.

THE following record of the action of Congress on the admission of Kansas, and of the determined efforts of the Democratic Pro-Slavery party to drag or dragoon that Territory into the Union as a Slave State, will be interesting for future reference.

The original bill, as it passed the Senate under the lead of Senator Green (March 22, 1858), was as follows:

THE LECOMPTON BILL.

A Bill for the Admission of the State of Kansas into the Union, presented in the Senate by Mr. Green, of Missouri, from the Committee on Territories, February 17, 1858.

Whereas, The people of the Territory of Kansas did, by a Convention of Delegates called and assembled at Leecompton, September 4, 1857, form for themselves a Constitution and State Government, which said Convention having asked the admission of the Territory into the Union as a State on an equal footing with the original States,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the State of Kansas shall be, and is hereby declared to be, one of the United States of America, and admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States, in all respects whatever; and the said State shall consist of all the territory included within the following boundaries, to wit: Beginning at a point on the western boundary of the State of Missouri where the thirty-seventh parallel of latitude crosses the same; thence west on said parallel to the eastern boundary of New Mexico; thence north on said boundary to latitude thirty-eight; thence following said boundary westward to the eastern boundary of the territory of Utah, on the summit of the Rocky Mountains; thence northward on said summit to the fortieth parallel of latitude; thence east on said parallel to the western boundary of the State of Missouri; thence south with the western boundary of said State to the place of beginning:

Provided, That nothing herein contained respecting the boundary of said State shall be construed to impair the right of person or property now pertaining to the Indians in said Territory so long as such right shall remain unextinguished by treaty between the United States and such Indians, or to include any territory which, by treaty with such Indian tribes, is not, without the consent of said tribe, to be included within the territorial limits or jurisdiction of any State or Territory, but all such territory shall be excepted out of the boundaries, and constitute no part in the State of Kansas, until said tribe shall signify their assent to the President of the United States to be included within said State, or to affect the authority of the Government of the United States to make any regulations respecting such Indians, their lands, property, or otherwise, which it would have been competent to make if this act had not been passed.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the State of Kansas is admitted into the Union upon the express condition that said State shall never interfere with the primary disposal of the public lands, or with any regulations which Congress may find necessary for securing the title in said lands to the bona fide purchasers and grantees thereof, or impose or levy any tax, assessment, or imposition of any description whatsoever upon them, or other property of the United States, within the limits of said State; and that nothing in this act shall be construed to abridge or infringe any right of the people asserted in the Constitution of Kansas, at all times, to alter, reform, or abolish their form of government in such manner as they may think proper, Congress hereby disclaiming any authority to intervene or declare the construction of the Constitution of any State, except to see that it is republican in form and not in conflict with the Constitution of the United States; and nothing in this act shall be construed as an assent by Congress to all or to any of the propositions or claims contained in the ordinance annexed to the Constitution of the people of Kansas, nor to deprive the said State of Kansas of the same grants which were contained in said act of Congress, entitled "An act to authorize the people of the Territory of Minnesota to form a Constitution and State Government, preparatory to admission into the Union on an equal footing with the original States," approved February 26, 1858.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That until the next general census shall be taken, and an apportionment of representation made, the State of Kansas shall be entitled to one Representative in the House of Representatives of the United States.

The bill passed, 23 to 25, as follows:

ABSENT OR NOT VOTING—Messrs. Bates (Del.), Reid (N. C.), Davis (Ill.), Cameron (Pa.) Mr. Cameron paired off with Mr. Davis.

Previous to taking this vote, Mr. Crittenden moved a substitute for the bill, in substance, that the Constitution be submitted to the people at once, and, if approved, the President to admit Kansas by proclamation. If rejected, the people to call a Convention and frame a Constitution. The substitute made special provision against frauds at the election.

This substitute was lost, Yeas 24, Nays 34.

On the first of April the bill was taken up in the House and read once, when, its second reading having been objected to by Mr. Giddings, the question recurred under the rule, Shall the bill be rejected? A vote was taken and resulted, Yeas 95, Nays 137.

Mr. Montgomery, of Pa., offered as a substitute, with slight alterations, the bill which Mr. Crittenden had offered in the Senate. Mr. Quitman, of Mississippi, also offered a substitute, which was the same as the Senate bill, with the omission of the declaratory clause, "that the people shall have the right at all times to alter or amend the Constitution in such manner as they think proper," etc.

Mr. Quitman's substitute was lost—Yeas 72, Nays 160, the yeas being all from the Slave States, and Mr. Montgomery's was adopted, 120 to 112.

The Crittenden-Montgomery substitute, as it passed, was in the following words:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, etc. That the State of Kansas be, and is hereby, admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States in all respects whatever; but inasmuch as it is greatly disputed whether the Constitution framed at Leocompton on the 7th day of November last, and now pending before Congress, was fairly made, or expressed the will of the people of Kansas, this admission of her into the Union as a State is here declared to be upon this fundamental condition precedent, namely: That the said constitutional instrument shall be first submitted to a vote of the people of Kansas, and assented to by them, or a majority of the voters, at an election to be held for the purpose; and as soon as such assent shall be given, and duly made known by a majority of the Commissioners herein appointed to the President of the United States, he shall announce the same by proclamation, and thereafter, and without any further proceedings on the part of Congress, the admission of the said State of Kansas into the Union upon an equal footing with the original States, in all respects whatever, shall be complete and absolute. At the said election the voting shall be by ballot, and by indorsing on his ballot, as each voter may please, "for the Constitution," or "against the Constitution." Should the said Constitution be rejected at the said election by a majority of votes being cast against it, then, and in that event, the inhabitants of said Territory are hereby authorized and empowered to form for themselves a Constitution and State Government by the name of the State of Kansas, according to the Federal Constitution, and to that end may elect delegates to a convention as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said State of Kansas shall have concurrent jurisdiction on the Missouri and all other rivers and waters bordering on the said State of Kansas, so far as the same shall form a common boundary to said State and any other State or States now or hereafter to be formed or bounded by the same; and said rivers and waters, and all the navigable waters of said State, shall be common highways and forever free, as well to the inhabitants of said State as to all other citizens of the United States, without any tax, duty, impost, or toll therefor.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of insuring, as far as possible, that the elections authorized by this act may be fair and free, the Governor and the Secretary of the Territory of Kansas, and the presiding officers of the two branches of its Legislature, namely, the President of the Council and Speaker of the House of Representatives, are hereby constituted a board of commissioners to carry into effect the provisions of this act, and to use all the means necessary and proper to that end. Any three of them shall constitute a Board; and the Board shall have power and authority, in respect to each and all of the elections hereby authorized or provided for, to designate and establish precincts for voting, or to adopt those already established; to cause polls to be opened at such places as it may deem proper in the respective counties and election precincts of said Territory; to appoint, as judges of election at each of the several places of voting, three discreet and respectable persons, any two of whom shall be competent to act; to require the sheriffs of the several counties, by themselves or deputies, to attend the judges at each of the places of voting, for the purpose of preserving peace and good order, or the said Board may, instead of said sheriffs and their deputies, appoint, at their discretion and in such instances as they may choose, other fit persons for the same purpose; and when the purpose of the election is to elect delegates to a convention to form a constitution as hereinbefore provided for, the number of delegates shall be sixty, and they shall be apportioned by said board among the several counties of said Territory, according to the number of voters; and in making this apportionment, the Board may join two or more counties together to make an election or representative district, where neither of the said counties has the requisite number of voters to entitle it to a delegate, or to join a smaller to a larger county having a surplus population, where it may serve to equalize the representation. The elections hereby authorized shall continue one day only, and shall not be continued later than sundown on that day. The said board shall appoint the day of election for each of the elections hereby authorized, as the same may become necessary. The said Governor shall announce, by proclamation, the day appointed for any one of said elections, and the day shall be as early a one as is consistent with due notice thereof to the people of said Territory, subject to the provisions of this act. The said Board shall have full power to prescribe the time, manner and places of each of said elections, and to direct the time and manner of the returns thereof, which returns shall be made to the said Board, whose duty it shall be to announce the result by proclamation, and to appoint therein as early a day as practicable for the delegates elected (where the election has been for delegates) to assemble in convention at the seat of Government of said Territory. When so assembled, the convention shall first determine, by a vote, whether it is the wish of the proposed State to be admitted into the Union at that time; and if so, shall proceed to form a Constitution, and take all necessary steps for the establishment of a State Government in conformity with the Federal Constitution, subject to the approval and ratification of the people of the proposed State. And the said convention shall accordingly provide for its submission to the vote of the people for approval or rejection; and if the majority of votes shall be given for the Constitution so framed as aforesaid, the Governor of the Territory shall, within twenty days after the result is known, notify the President of the United States of the same. And thereupon the President shall announce the same by proclamation, and thereafter, and without any further proceedings whatever on the part of Congress, the admission of the said State of Kansas into the Union, upon an equal footing with the original States in all respects whatever, shall be complete and absolute.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That in the elections hereby authorized, all white male inhabitants of said Territory over the age of twenty-one years, who are legal voters under the laws of the Territory of Kansas, and none others, shall be allowed to vote; and this shall be the only qualification required to entitle the voter to the right of suffrage in said elections. And if any person not so qualified shall vote or offer to vote, or if any person shall vote more than once at either of said elections, or shall make, or cause to be made, any false, fictitious or fraudulent returns, or shall alter or change any returns of either of said elections, such person shall, upon conviction thereof before any court of competent jurisdiction, be kept at hard labor not less than six months, and not more than three years.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the members of the aforesaid Board of Commissioners, and all persons appointed by them to carry into effect the provisions of this act, shall, before entering upon their duties, take an oath to perform faithfully the duties of their respective offices; and on failure thereof, they shall be liable and subject to the same charges and penalties as are provided in like cases under the Territorial laws.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the officers mentioned in the preceding section shall receive for their services the same compensation as is given for like services under the Territorial laws.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the said State of Kansas, when her admission as a State becomes complete and absolute, shall be entitled to one member in the House of Representatives, in the Congress of the United States, till the next census be taken by the Federal Government.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the following propositions be, and the same are hereby, offered to the said people of Kansas for their free acceptance or rejection, which, if accepted, shall be obligatory on the United States and upon the said State of Kansas, to wit: First, That sections numbered sixteen and thirty-six in every township of public lands in said State, and where either of said sections, or any part thereof, has been sold or otherwise been disposed of, other lands equivalent thereto, and as contiguous as may be, shall be granted to said State for the use of schools. Second, That seventy-two sections of land shall be set apart and reserved for the use and support of a State University, to be selected by the Governor of said State, subject to the approval of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and to be appropriated and applied in such manner as the Legislature of said State may prescribe for the purpose aforesaid, but for no other purposes. Third: That ten entire sections of land, to be selected by the Governor of said State, in legal subdivisions, shall be granted to said State for the purpose of completing the public buildings, or for the erection of others at the seat of government, under the direction of the Legislature thereof. Fourth, That all salt springs within said State, not exceeding twelve in number, with six sections of land adjoining, or as contiguous as may be to each, shall be granted to said State for its use; the same to be selected by the Governor thereof within one year after the admission of said State, and when so selected, to be used or disposed of on such terms, conditions and regulations as the Legislature shall direct: Provided, That no salt springs or land the right whereof is now vested in any individual or individuals, or which may be hereafter confirmed or adjudged to any individual or individuals, shall by this article be granted to said State. Fifth, That five per centum of the net proceeds of sales of all public lands lying within said States, which shall be sold by Congress after the admission of said State into the Union, after deducting all the expenses incident to the same shall be paid to said State, for the purpose of making public roads and internal improvements, as the Legislature shall direct: Provided, The foregoing propositions hereinbefore offered are on the condition that the people of Kansas shall provide, by an ordinance, irrevocable without the consent of the United States, that said State shall never interfere with the primary disposal of the soil within the same, by the United States, or with any regulations Congress may find necessary for securing the title in said soil to bona fide purchasers thereof, and that no tax shall be imposed on lands belonging to the United States, and that in no case shall non-resident proprietors be taxed higher than residents. Noted: And that the said State shall never tax the lands or the property of the United States in that State: Provided however, That nothing in this act of admission shall be so construed as to ratify or accept the ordinance attached to said Constitution; but said ordinance is hereby rejected by the Government of the United States.

The bill having been returned to the Senate on the second day of April, Mr. Green moved to disagree to the House amendment, which motion was adopted. Yeas 34. Nays 22.

The following are the Nays:

In the House of Representatives, on the 7th of April, Mr. Montgomery, of Pennsylvania, moved that the House adhere to its amendment, which motion was carried, Yeas 119, Nays 111—the vote being the same as on the adoption of the amendment, with the exception of Messrs. Marshall and Bowie, who paired off and did not vote.

On the 13th of April, the Senate voted to insist and ask for a conference committee, Yeas 30, Nays 24—the Nays being the same as the Nays on Mr. Green's motion to disagree, with the addition of Messrs. Bell and Sumner. On the following day, the House received a message from the Senate insisting on its disagreement and asking a committee of conference, when Mr. Montgomery, of Pa., moved that the House insist on its adherence on which he demanded the previous question. The call for the previous question was lost by the casting vote of the Speaker. 108 to 108. Very much to the surprise of the House, Mr. English, of Indiana, who had acted with the Anti-Lecompton party up to this time, moved that the House agree to a Conference Committee, and that a Committee of three be appointed by the Speaker to meet a similar committee of the Senate, and on this he called for the previous question, which was ordered. The Yeas and Nays were called, and the vote stood 108 to 108: the Speaker voting in the affirmative. Mr. English's proposition was agreed to. The Yeas and Nays were as follows:

On the 23d of April the Committee made their report (a dodging, shuffling affair, susceptible of various interpretations.) Messrs. Seward of the Senate, and Howard of the House, dissenting. After a running fight of a week between the friends and opponents of the new dodge, on the 30th of April, the report of the Committee was adopted by both branches of Congress, and Lecompton, Jr., became a law. It is as follows:

An Act for the Admission of the State of Kansas into the Union.—Whereas, the people of the Territory of Kansas did, by a convention of delegates assembled at Lecompton on the 7th day of Nov., 1857, for that purpose, form for themselves a constitution and State government, which Constitution is republican; and whereas, at the same time and place, said convention did adopt an ordinance, which said ordinance asserts that Kansas, when admitted as a State, will have an undoubted right to tax the lands within her limits belonging to the United States, and proposes to relinquish said asserted right if certain conditions set forth in said ordinance be accepted and agreed to by the Congress of the United States; and whereas, the said constitution and ordinance have been presented to Congress by order of said convention, and admission of said Territory into the Union thereon as a State requested; and whereas, said ordinance is not acceptable to Congress, and it is desirable to ascertain whether the people of Kansas concur in the changes in said ordinance, hereinafter stated, and desire admission into the Union as a State as herein proposed: Therefore,

Be it enacted, etc., That the State of Kansas be, and is hereby admitted into the Union on an equal footing with the original States, in all respects whatever, but upon this fundamental condition precedent, namely: That the question of admission with the following proposition, in lieu of the ordinance framed at Lecompton, be submitted to a vote of the people of Kansas, and assented to by them or a majority of the voters voting at an election to be held for that purpose, namely: That the following propositions be and the same are hereby offered to the people of Kansas for acceptance or rejection, which, if accepted, shall be obligatory on the United States and upon the said State of Kansas, to wit: First, That sections number sixteen and thirty-six in every township of public lands in said State, or where either of said sections or any part thereof has been sold or otherwise disposed of, other lands equivalent thereto and as contiguous as may be, shall be granted to said State for the use of schools. Second, That seventy-two sections of land shall be set apart and reserved for the support of a State University, to be selected by the Governor of said State subject to the approval of the Commissioner of the General Land-Office, and to be appropriated and applied in such manner as the legislature of said State may prescribe for the purpose aforesaid, but for no other purpose. Third, That ten entire sections of land, to be selected by the Governor of said State, in legal subdivisions, shall be granted to said State for the purpose of completing the public buildings, or for the erection of others at the seat of government, under the direction of the legislature thereof. Fourth, That all salt springs within said State, not exceeding twelve in number, with six sections of land adjoining, or as contiguous as may be to each, shall be granted to said State for its use, the same to be selected by the Governor thereof, within one year after the admission of said State; and, when so selected, to be used or disposed of on such terms, conditions and regulations as the legislature may direct. Provided, That no salt spring or land the right whereof is now vested in any individual or individuals, or which may hereafter be confirmed or adjudged to any individual or individuals, shall by this article be granted to said State. Fifth, That five per centum of the net proceeds of sales of all public lands lying within said State which shall be sold by Congress after the admission of said State into the Union, after deducting all the expenses incident to the same, shall be paid to said State for the purpose of making public roads and internal improvements, as the legislature shall direct. Provided, The foregoing propositions herein offered are on the condition that said State of Kansas shall never interfere with the primary disposal of the lands of the United States, or with any regulations which Congress may find necessary for securing the title in said soil to bona fide purchasers thereof, and that no tax shall be imposed on lands belonging to the United States, and that in no case shall non-resident proprietors be taxed higher than residents. Sixth, And that said State shall never tax the lands or property of the United States in that State.

At the said election the voting shall be by ballot, and by endorsing on his ballot, as each voter may be pleased, "Proposition accepted," or "Proposition rejected." Should a majority of the votes cast be for "Proposition accepted," the President of the United States, as soon as the fact is duly made known to him, shall announce the same by proclamation; and thereafter, and without any further proceedings on the part of Congress, the admission of the State of Kansas into the Union upon an equal footing with the original States in all respects whatever shall be complete and absolute; and said State shall be entitled to one member in the House of Representatives in the Congress of the United States until the next census be taken by the Federal Government. But should a majority of the votes cast be for "Proposition rejected," it shall be deemed and held that the people of Kansas do not desire admission into the Union with said constitution under the conditions set forth in said proposition: and in that event the people of said Territory are hereby authorized and empowered to form for themselves a constitution and State government, by the name of the State of Kansas, according to the Federal Constitution, and may elect delegates for that purpose whenever, and not before, it is ascertained by a census duly and legally taken that the population of said Territory equals or exceeds the ratio of representation required for a member of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States; and whenever thereafter such delegates shall assemble in convention, they shall first determine by a vote whether it is the wish of the people of the proposed State to be admitted into the Union at that time; and, if so, shall proceed to form a constitution, and take all necessary steps for the establishment of a State government, in conformity with the Federal Constitution subject to such limitations and restrictions as to the mode and manner of its approval or ratification by the people of the proposed State as they may have prescribed by law, and shall be entitled to admission into the Union as a State under such constitution, thus fairly and legally made, with or without slavery, as said constitution may prescribe.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of insuring, as far as possible, that the elections authorized by this act may be fair and free the Governor, United States District Attorney, and Secretary of the Territory of Kansas and the presiding officers of the two branches of its legislature, namely, the President of the Council and Speaker of the House of Representatives, are hereby constituted a board of commissioners to carry into effect the provisions of this act, and to use all the means necessary and proper to that end. And three of them shall constitute a board; and the board shall have power and authority to designate and establish precincts for voting or to adopt those already established; to cause polls to be opened at such places as it may deem proper to the respective counties and election precincts of said Territory; to appoint as judges of election at each of the several places of voting three discreet and respectable persons, any two of whom shall be competent to act; to require the sheriffs of the several counties, by themselves or deputies, to attend the judges at each of the places of voting for the purpose of preserving peace and good order; or the said board may, instead of said sheriffs and their deputies, appoint at their discretion, and in such instances as they may choose, other fit persons for the same purpose. The election hereby authorized shall continue one day only, and shall not be continued later than sundown on that day. The said board shall appoint the day for holding said election, and the said governor shall announce the same by proclamation; and the day shall be as early a one as is consistent with due notice thereof to the people of said Territory, subject to the provisions of this act. The said board shall have full power to prescribe the time, manner, and places of said election, and to direct the time [within] which returns shall be made to the said board, whose duty it shall be to announce the result by proclamation, and the said Governor shall certify the same to the President of the United States without delay.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That in the election hereby authorized, all white male inhabitants of said Territory, over the age of twenty-one years, who possess the qualifications which were required by the laws of said Territory for a legal voter at the last general election for the members of the territorial legislature, and none others, shall be allowed to vote; and this shall be the only qualification required to entitle the voter to the right of suffrage in said election. And if any person not so qualified shall vote or offer to vote, or if any person shall vote more than once at said election, or shall make or cause to be made any false, fictitious, or fraudulent returns, or shall alter or change any returns of said election, such person shall, upon conviction thereof before any court of competent jurisdiction, be kept at hard labor not less than six months and not more than three years.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the members of the aforesaid board of commissioners, and all persons appointed by them to carry into effect the provisions of this act, shall, before entering upon their duties, take an oath to perform faithfully the duties of their respective offices: and, on failure thereof, they shall be liable and subject to the same charges and penalties as are provided in like cases under the Territorial laws.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the officers mentioned in the preceding section shall receive for their services the same compensation as is given for like services under the Territorial laws.

The vote in the Senate, on agreeing to the Conference Committee's Report, stood—yeas, 30; nays, 22; as follows:

YEAS.—Messrs. Allen, Bayard, Benjamin, Bigler, Biggs, Bright, Brown, Clay, Davis, Evans, Fitzpatrick, Green, Gwin, Hammond, Houston, Hunter, Iverson, Johnson (Ark.), Johnson (Tenn.), Jones, Kennedy, Mallory, Mason, Polk, Pugh, Sebastian, Thomson (N. J.), Toombs, Wright, Yulee.

THE PUBLIC LANDS—AGRICULTURAL COLLEGES.

The following bill appropriating public lands for the establishment of agricultural schools, which was introduced by Mr. Morrill, passed the House of Representatives on the 2d of April, 1858, by a vote of 104 to 100. In the Senate it was read twice and referred to the Committee on Public Lands, and will probably come up for final action in that body during this (1858-9) winter:

An Act donating public lands to the several States and Territories which may provide colleges for the benefit of agriculture and the mechanic arts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there be granted to the several States and Territories, for the purpose hereinafter mentioned, five millions nine hundred and twenty thousand (5,920,000) acres of land, to be apportioned to each State a quantity equal to twenty thousand (20,000) acres for each senator and representative in Congress to which the States are now respectively entitled.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the land aforesaid, after being surveyed, shall be apportioned to the several States and Territories in sections or subdivisions of sections, not less than one quarter of a section; and whenever there are public lands in a State worth one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre [the value of said lands to be determined by the governor of said State], the quantity to which said State shall be entitled shall be selected from such lands, and the Secretary of the Interior is hereby directed to issue to those States in which there are no public lands of the value of one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre land scrip to the amount of their distributive shares in acres under the provisions of this act, said scrip to be sold by said States and the proceeds thereof applied to the uses and purposes prescribed in this act, and for no other use or purpose whatsoever: Provided, That in no case shall any State to which land scrip may thus be issued be allowed to locate the same within the limits of any other State, but their assignees may thus locate said land scrip upon any of the unappropriated lands of the United States subject to private entry.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That in all the expenses of management and supervision of said lands, previous to their sales, and all expenses incurred in the management and disbursement of the moneys which may be received therefrom, shall be paid by the States to which they may belong out of the treasury of said States, so that the entire proceeds of the sale of said land shall be applied without any diminution whatever to the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That all moneys derived from the sale of the lands aforesaid by the States to which the lands are apportioned, and from the sales of land scrip hereinbefore provided for, shall be invested in stocks of the United States, or of the States, or some other safe stocks, yielding not less than five per centum upon the par value of said stocks; and that the moneys so invested shall constitute a perpetual fund, the capital of which shall remain forever undiminished (except so far as may be provided in section fifth of this act), and the interest of which shall be inviolably appropriated by each State which may take and claim the benefit of this act to the endowment, support, and maintenance of at least one college where the leading object shall be, without excluding other scientific or classical studies, to teach such branches of learning as are related to agriculture and the mechanic arts, in such manner as the legislatures of the States may respectively prescribe, in order to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in the several pursuits and professions in life.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the grant of land and land scrip hereby authorized shall be made on the following conditions, to which, as well as to the provisions hereinbefore contained, the previous assent of the several States shall be signified by legislative acts:

First. If any portion of the fund invested, as provided by the foregoing section, or any portion of the interest thereon, shall, by any action or contingency, be diminished or lost, it shall be replaced by the State to which it belongs, so that the capital of the fund shall remain forever undiminished; and the annual interest shall be regularly applied without diminution to the purposes mentioned in the fourth section of this act, except that a sum, not exceeding ten per centum upon the amount received by any State under the provisions of this act, may be expended for the purchase of lands for sites or experimental farms, whenever authorized by the respective legislatures of said States.

Second. No portion of said fund, nor the interest thereon, shall be applied, directly or indirectly, under any pretence whatever, to the purchase, erection, preservation, or repair of any building or buildings.

Third. Any State which may take and claim the benefit of the provisions of this act shall provide, within five years, at least not less than one college, as described in the fourth section of this act, or the grant to such State shall cease; and said State shall be bound to pay the United States the amount received of any lands previously sold, and that the title to purchasers under the State shall be valid.

Fourth. An annual report shall be made regarding the progress of each college, recording any improvements and experiments made, with their cost and results, and such other matters as may be supposed useful—one copy of which shall be transmitted by mail free, by each, to all the other colleges which may be endowed under the provisions of this act, and to the Smithsonian Institution, and the agricultural department of the Patent Office at Washington.

Fifth. When lands shall be selected from those which have been raised to double the minimum price, in consequence of railroad grants, they shall be computed to the States at double the quantity.

PREEMPTION RIGHTS.

MR. GROW, member of the House of Representatives from Pennsylvania, proposed at the first session of the XXXVth Congress, the following important measure for the protection of settlers on the Public Domain:

A BILL to prevent the future sale of the public lands under proclamation of the President until the same shall have been surveyed for at least fifteen years.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, in Congress assembled, That from and after the first day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, no public lands shall be exposed to sale by proclamation of the President, until the same shall have been surveyed and the return thereof filed in the land office for at least fifteen years.

This bill, it will be seen, gives the settlers fifteen years, precedence over the speculators. On the 3d of May, 1858, Mr. Grow, moved to suspend the rules, with a view to the introduction of the above bill, which motion was voted down as follows:

KANSAS IN 1858.

OUR last sketch of Kansas affairs left that territory with the Lecompton Constitution hanging over its head. The Convention which had framed that bogus instrument declined, in spite of the pledges of the majority of the members, to submit their handiwork to the people. They allowed only a vote on the insertion or rejection of the clauses by which slave property was declared to be before and higher than any constitutional sanction, and establishing the holding of slaves as a part of the fundamental law of Kansas. The vote upon the adoption or rejection of this clause was fixed for the 21st of December, but as it was impossible to vote against slavery without at the same time voting for the Constitution, the Free-State men abstained from the polls, and the slavery clause was adopted by a vote of 6,143 for, to 569 against it. More than half the affirmative votes were returned from counties along the Missouri border, not having in all more than a thousand votes.

The choice of officers under this Lecompton Constitution, as ordered by the Convention, was to come off on the first Monday in January. There was great difference of opinion among the Free-State men how they ought to act in reference to it. The whole control of the election, the appointment of judges and presiding officers, and the final counting and declaration of the returns, was vested by the Convention in their notorious President John Calhoun, and the Free-State men had every reason to expect that any necessary amount of cheating and falsification would be resorted to, to shape the returns according to his wishes. On the other hand, there was evident danger that this bogus Constitution would be forced upon the Territory; and it seemed a pity, considering the great majority of the Free-State men, not to make an effort to secure the officers to be elected. A Free Soil Convention decided to make no nominations for State officers, but this was not satisfactory to all, and a bolting nomination was made.

Meanwhile, Governor Walker had been superseded, and Governor Denver, a commissioner of the Land Office, appointed in his place. Secretary Stanton, acting Governor in Walker's absence, called a special session of the newly elected Territorial Legislature in which the Free-State men had a majority, and they passed an act submitting the Lecompton Constitution to a vote of the people, to be taken on the same day with the Lecompton election. At the beginning of the year, also, the Legislature, under the Topeka Constitution, many of whose members were also members of the Territorial Legislature, met at Topeka. Their object merely was to keep up the State organization.

At the election of the 4th of January, a majority of 10,226 votes was cast against the Lecompton Constitution. The result of the Lecompton State election long remained in doubt. It was understood that a little over six thousand votes (a large part of the Free-State men not voting) had been given for both sets of candidates for State officers, but according to Calhoun's figuring, the Pro-Slavery men were chosen. It was also understood that the Free-State men, of whom a large part had voted for members of the Legislature, had a decided majority in both branches of that body: but all depended upon the returns from Leavenworth County, the returns for some districts of which had been falsified on their way to Calhoun, and as he kept the whole body of returns in his pocket, and refused to certify to anybody's election till Congress had first acted on the question by admission, the matter long remained in doubt. It was generally understood that if Kansas was admitted, Calhoun would cook up the returns so as to produce a Pro-Slavery State government and Legislature.

In spite of this renewed and unequivocal indication of the entire repugnance of a large majority of the people of Kansas to the Lecompton Constitution, the President still adhered to the policy of forcing Kansas into the Union, under that Constitution. A bill to that effect was introduced. Mr. Douglas falling back upon his doctrine of Popular Sovereignty, refused to support it, and, though it passed the Senate, in spite of every exertion of executive power, it was rejected in the House. Some of the bolters were bought over; others were half bought over, so that finally the bill passed, but only with a provision submitting the question of admission or not to a vote of the people of Kansas, who were also offered a large bribe in lands, to come in under the Lecompton Constitution, to which was added a prohibition against their coming in under any other Constitution till they had the full population of 93,340. [A full account of these Congressional proceedings will be found in another part of the Almanac.]

It was still further attempted to bribe or delude the people of Kansas by an issue on the part of John Calhoun, of certificates to a majority of Free-State men as members elect of both branches of the Legislature.

The people of Kansas scornfully rejected both bribes and threats, and at the election held on the 3d of August, by ten thousand majority, trampled the Lecompton Constitution under their feet.

The Territorial Legislature, whose session expired by law with the month of February, had failed to meet the expectations of its constituents. The members had been altogether too much engrossed by private bills for banks, railroads, town-plots, etc., to have much time or thought to give to public interests. The most obnoxious of the Border Ruffian acts were repealed, and a bill was passed to call a Convention to frame a new State Constitution; it was so late, however, in the session, when this bill was disposed of, as to afford Governor Denver a plausible pretence for insisting that it had failed to become a law.

The Convention met, however, in April, and framed a Constitution to be submitted to Congress, which Constitution was ratified by the people by a large majority, though the entire vote upon it was but small, as the people doubted whether Congress, after their recent act, would consent to admit Kansas as a State, with her present population.

Meanwhile, Kansas has enjoyed an uneasy sort of quiet, not, however, without some cruel and bloody events in the region about Fort Scott, where the Border Ruffians made their final stand, and against whom the Free-State men were obliged to arm in self-defence. Indeed there can hardly be said to have been any law anywhere in the Territory. Governor Denver adopted the policy of keeping quiet and doing little, or nothing. The infamous Lecompte still remained the chief justice of the Territory. It is true that the Free-State men had been enabled to displace by popular election the county officers and the Probate Judges, to whom the Border Ruffian Legislature had given a very wide jurisdiction, and to elect Free-State men in their places; but the moment that these Probate Courts could no longer be used for purposes of Border Ruffian oppression, Lecompte and his colleagues avowed their intention to decide against the validity of the law conferring general jurisdiction upon them, thus invalidating all the proceedings of those Courts, and throwing everything into confusion. To give Kansas an efficient government, and to wipe out the deep remaining traces of the oppression and misrule of which she has been the victim the speedy organization of a State government and her admission into the Union appear to be highly necessary.

HOW THEY ELECT BOGUS U. S. SENATORS IN INDIANA.

In 1845, fourteen years ago, it became the duty of the Indiana Legislature to elect a U. S. Senator. The House was Whig by 10 majority, the Senate a tie, and Jesse D. Bright, as Lieutenant-Governor, presided over it. Although the House repeatedly invited the Senate to meet them in joint convention to elect the Senator, every one of their resolutions was lost in the Senate by the casting vote of Mr. Bright, its president. The election was thus staved off for the session; the next Legislature was "Democratic," and Mr. Bright received the vacant senatorship as his reward.

In 1855, another Senator was to be elected. In the Senate, in consequence of half of its number being hold-overs, there was 2 Democratic majority; but in the House there was 16 Anti-Nebraska majority, making 14 Republican majority on joint ballot. The House sent resolution after resolution to the Senate for a Joint Convention to elect a Senator and the numerous State officers which the Constitution and the laws required to be filled by that session of the Legislature. But the Senate, by a party vote, steadily refused to join the House, leaving the senatorial seat vacant, and the entire patronage of the State in the hands of the Democratic Governor.

Two years passed by, and, in 1856, Indiana elected her next Legislature—a majority on joint ballot, under the issue of "Buchanan and Fair Play for Kansas," being Democratic. But, as it happened, while the House had a Democratic majority, the Senate now, by the changes in the former hold-overs, had an Opposition majority of four. In giving a narrative of what subsequently occurred, it should be borne in mind that the Republicans were willing, from the first to the last, that both Senators (to fill the vacancy and for Mr. Bright's full term) should be chosen by a concurrent vote of each House, acting separately—and that they demanded as their right, only the Senator for the vacancy which they had fairly won by the 12,000 Anti-Nebraska majority of the people and 14 majority in the Legislature at the previous election, and which they had been deliberately cheated out of by their opponents.

The Constitution of Indiana requires that the votes for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor shall be counted in presence of both Houses of the Legislature, and the Democracy determined to use this to trap their opponents into a Joint Convention, which, as no law for electing Senators exists in Indiana, should immediately after the counting elect two gentlemen to that office. The Republicans insisted that, in the absence of law, the Constitution of the United States was the only guide in the matter. That instrument declares that Senators shall be elected by "the Legislature;" and the Constitution of Indiana defines the Legislature to be the Senate and the House, and requires all acts of legislation by them to be assented to by a majority of the entire membership of each, acting separately.

From the official report, and the official copies of the journals of both branches of the Legislature appended to Senate Report No. 275 (Vol. 2, Reports U. S. Senate 1857-'8), we find the following facts:

On the 12th of January, 1857, the House sent to the Senate a resolution inviting them to be present in their hall at half past 2 p.m., "to open and publish the returns of the election."

The Republican Senators offered to concur, with a proviso that, as soon as the counting and swearing in was over, the joint meeting should be adjourned sine die. But while this was pending, and before any vote was taken on the invitation of the House, and thirty-five minutes before the time designated in the resolution, Lieutenant-Governor Willard, who was presiding, and who was also the Governor elect, vacated his seat, and followed by a minority of the Senate, repaired to the Representative Hall, leaving the Senate still in session. Arrived there, this sham Joint Convention opened, the Speaker of the House in the chair. After counting the votes, one of the Democratic Senators was, without any motion, or any vote, called upon to preside. He took his seat, and without any proposition from any member whatever, or any vote being taken, adjourned the Joint Convention till Monday, the 2d of February, without stating any reason or pretext for its reassembling.

It becoming evident that a fraudulent election of Senators was about to be attempted (all persuasions to seduce the majority of the Senate into a Joint Convention having failed), the Senate, on the 29th of January, four days before the time at which the unauthorized Convention was to meet, adopted a solemn protest against it by a vote, by ayes and noes, of 27 to 20, declaring that they had given no assent to any Joint Convention for any purpose whatever—that any pretended assemblage of that sort would be illegal and fraudulent—and branding in advance any attempt to thus elect Senators as insulting to the Senate and disgraceful to the State.

This formal and solemn protest, thus adopted by 27 out of the 50 State Senators, staggered the conspirators; and when the 2d of February arrived, although the new Lieutenant-Governor, with a minority of the Senate, again repaired to the Representative Hall, leaving the Senate still in session and going on with their business, nothing whatever was done or attempted; but the presiding officer, without any motion or any vote, and without stating any object whatever, declared the Joint Convention again adjourned till the following Wednesday.

On Wednesday, the 4th of February, the pretended Joint Convention again assembled—and it should be borne in mind that the affidavits of the Secretaries of the Senate set forth the fact that the Senate was never even invited by the House to meet them in Joint Convention for the purpose of electing Senators from the first day of the session till the last)—when, without any motion or resolution by any member of this illegal assemblage, the Lieutenant-Governor instructed them “to proceed to choose United States Senators by a viva voce vote.” Whereupon 23 Senators (out of 50) voted for Bright and Fitch—one Senator, who was present, looking on, refused to vote—60 out of the 100 Representatives (it requires by the State Constitution two-thirds of the whole number of members to make a quorum for transacting business in either branch) voted for the same candidates, and two other Representatives voted for Geo. G. Dunn and R. W. Thompson. The Lieutenant-Governor declared Bright and Fitch elected; and again, without any motion or vote, adjourned the Joint Convention till February 11th. The intention was, at that time, to go on and choose the State officers, whose election they had prevented two years before; but finding that the incumbents, though of their own party, would not consent, without a legal contest, to be ousted by any such bogus election, the Joint Convention, when the 11th of February arrived, was adjourned sine die, and the patronage again left in the hands of the Governor for the ensuing two years.

The Senate, having protested against this fraud on the 29th of January, in advance of its commission, again repudiated it the day after its alleged consummation. On the 5th of February, 27 Senators out of the 50, signed and placed on their Journals a Protest, a copy of which they sent to the U. S. Senate, declaring that their body had not participated in the election, was in session when it was pretended to have occurred, and most solemnly protesting against the recognition of this fraud. With these papers, came up also a petition to the U. S. Senate, signed by 27 Senators and 36 Representatives, remonstrating against this fraudulent election, which was not participated in by a quorum of either branch—declaring this alleged Joint Convention unauthorized by any law of the State, by any resolution adopted by the Legislature, or by any provision of the State or National Constitution, and that to affirm it would destroy the existence of the Senate of Indiana as an independent branch of the legislative department of the State. And to make their argument unanswerable, the sworn affidavit of 26 Senators accompanied these protests, each of them solemnly declaring that they did not participate in this so-called Joint Convention, but were, at the very hour of its alleged assembling, sitting in their seats in the Senate, in open session.

Thus it will be seen that this case differs from the Harlan or Iowa case most materially. In that election, both branches had agreed to the Joint Convention, and had voted repeatedly but ineffectually for Senator; but finding at last that a Republican was about to be elected, a majority of the Senate, being Democrats, absented themselves; and although Mr. Harlan had a clear majority of the whole Legislature, the Democrats in the U. S. Senate turned him out of his seat. After this decision, the above high-handed and disgraceful outrage was carried through in Indiana in the very teeth of the Harlan decision. And the same U. S. Senate, after staving it off for over a year, with the usurpers meanwhile in their seats, voting Lecompton, Appropriation bills, etc., ratify it at last, in the expiring hours of the last session, by seven majority.

The sitting members at the regular session of 1857—at the extra session—and again at the last regular session—insisted that they must have more testimony than the records afforded. And finally, on

Feb. 16, 1858, a resolution passed, giving them 90 days to take it in, before any judge, by giving notice thereof to the protestants. But after this long delay on this pretext, they did not give a single notice under the resolution, and the only evidence they proffered was ex parte affidavits of political friends, taken when no cross-examination was allowed. The Republicans, however, gave notice, and proved by Gov. Willard himself, by Wm. Sheets, ex-Sec'y of State, and O. H. Smith, ex-U. S. Senator, that no Joint Convention to count gubernatorial votes had ever even attempted to adjourn over for the transaction of other business; and the two latter witnesses, who had known the usage in Indiana for electing U. S. Senators for 30 years past, testified that there never had been a precedent or a parallel for this. As one reason for retaining these Senators in their seats was that there were no contestants claiming them, the Indiana Legislature, now in session and fresh from the people, having passed in each branch, by decisive majorities, a resolution denouncing the pretended election as fraudulent, unconstitutional and void, propose to elect two others, legally and regularly, and to instruct them to demand the two seats in the U. S. Senate, which belong to the sovereign State of Indiana, but to which that body, in spite of the above protests, saw fit to elect and install these fraudulent claimants.

UTAH AND THE MORMONS.

Mormonism is thirty-one years old, but its true history is yet to be written. A movement which was, at first, derided as a weak and absurd imposture, in ten years became formidable enough to be driven from State to State by exasperated and relentless mobs. A people bound together by a new, strange, and mysterious faith, which set them apart from the rest of the body politic, of which, nevertheless, they were still a part, enjoying the privileges and asserting the rights of citizenship, could hardly fail to become both feared and hated as they increased in numbers, and threatened to exercise a potent influence in political affairs. That they meant to gain and use such influence was the charge which, in those early days, was made against them, and the alleged provocation of the persecution to which they were subjected. But whether deserving or not of condemnation on this score, it is certain that they were called upon to endure as much suffering as if they had been the disciples of the purest, most harmless, and most beneficent religion, proclaiming only peace on earth and good will to man.

But when, fourteen years ago, the brothers Hiram, the Patriarch, and Joseph, the Prophet, were shot at Nauvoo by a mob, in the cell of a jail, like vermin in a trap, and their followers were soon after driven out upon a desperate flight into the western wilderness; then, it was thought, the end had come to a mischievous heresy. But a stronger man than the Prophet Joseph was left to guide and govern his followers. Brigham Young, who had stood high in the confidence and esteem of his murdered chief, and was already eminent in the church, put aside all who contested with him the leadership of the Saints, and was elected Seer. Possessed of a rough eloquence, of persuasive manners, of great shrewdness, untiring energy and remarkable executive ability, he led the people, surrounded by enemies, robbed of their possessions, and driven from their homes, to a temporary settlement at Council Bluffs.

In the course of the next season, the "Lion of the Lord," as the Mormons called their new Prophet, marshalled his followers for that long and perilous flight through a wilderness of a thousand miles that lay between the confines of civilization and the home he had chosen for them in the valley of the Great Salt Lake. This terrible journey of an army of men, women and children, encumbered with household stuff, beset with foes without in the Indians of the plains, weakened by pestilence and fever within, and suffering, sometimes starving, for want of food, was marked, from its beginning to its end, with the graves of the pilgrims. But the indomitable will of their leader, his unbounded influence over his followers, their unswerving belief that they were the chosen people of the Lord, and perhaps the conviction, enforced by years of persecution, that behind them, among their civilized countrymen, they should never find rest for the soles of their feet, sustained them through their long and painful journey, till at length they looked down from the summit of a mountain upon the gleaming beach of the Great Salt Lake, in the valley of which they were to find a resting-place.

In those early days, both before and for some years after they fled beyond the confines of civilization, the worst feature of their faith was rather suspected than known. They were believed to be fanatics, holding tenets at variance with the dogmas of Christianity and the historical truths of the Bible, and to be blindly obedient to the guidance of designing leaders. Polygamy had, indeed, been revealed to the Seer as the true relation of woman to man as early as 1843, but the revelation had not yet been made known to the "Saints," and was not till about ten years later. But they were suspected both of the theory and practice of a plurality of wives, and though it was repeatedly denied by their elders and missionaries, the belief obtained that an attempt was to be made to establish among us, as part of a social and religious scheme, a system so abhorrent to the received morality of Christendom. The belief was at least prophetic; in 1853, polygamy was openly announced and defended as the Peculiar Institution of the people of the Valley of the Great Salt Lake.

In the meantime, that people, with an industry and sobriety which, whatever else may be said of them, they certainly possess in an eminent degree, were subduing the soil, reclaiming the wilderness, breaking nature to harness, clothing the Great Valley with towns and cities, and covering it with farms. A prosperous commonwealth, sufficient to itself, gradually increasing in wealth and power, and rapidly adding to its numbers from the world without, particularly from Europe, grew up in that middle land between the confines of civilization on the Atlantic and Pacific. And when the gold-fields of California were opened to that vast tide of emigration that flowed over them from the East, the Mormon settlement became a sort of half-way resting-place to those who went to the Pacific coast by the overland route. The Mormon influence over the Indians, through the peaceful relations they had cultivated with them, probably made that route a far safer one than it would have otherwise been. But it was not long before some of these emigrants complained that in the Mormons themselves they found an enemy almost as dangerous as the savages. They alleged that they were defrauded in trade, plundered of their goods, robbed of their cattle, and, in various ways, harassed on their toilsome journey. Such charges, however, the Mormons met with an indignant denial. They affirmed that the emigrants were the aggressors; that they mocked at Mormonism, insulting Mormon wives and outraging Mormon husbands; that they turned their cattle into Mormon fields, helped themselves, without pay, to Mormon produce; laughed at the Mormon judges, before whom they were arraigned, escaping the penalty of their misdeeds by defiance or by flight; and, in short, conducted themselves always as if among a people toward whom they were under no obligation of observing any relation of fair dealing or good fellowship. And this representation was fully confirmed by Lieut. Gunnison, who was very familiar, for a considerable period, with the affairs of the Territory. Such accusations, however, had their effect, and did much to awaken the early feeling of hostility against the "Saints," and which they had fled to the wilderness to escape. The death afterward of Lieut. Gunnison still further increased the popular enmity. This officer was one of the surveying party under Capt. Stansbury, and published a book upon the Mormons, after his return to the States, which, it was said, was not acceptable to the people of Utah. On a subsequent surveying tour in their territory, he and most of his party were treacherously murdered by the Indians. It was asserted that the murder was connived at by Young, or that, at least, he might have prevented it. The mere suggestion of such a crime found ready believers, and but little credence was given to the emphatic denial of the Mormons, who declared that the murder was committed at a time and place where it was impossible for them to have interfered, and that, moreover, the motive, on their part, for such a deed, was wanting, inasmuch as they had none but friendly relations with Mr. Gunnison, and that so far from being offended at his book, they were grateful to him for having justly portrayed their sufferings and persecutions, and for not having traduced their morals and manners.

In 1850, Utah was recognized by the Federal Government as a Territory of the United States, and Brigham Young was appointed Governor by Mr. Fillmore. The appointment was renewed under Pierce's Administration, Col. Steptoe, of the U. S. army, to whom the office was tendered, declining it, and uniting, while at Salt Lake City, with the leading Mormons in a memorial, praying that the head of the Mormon Church, Brigham Young, might continue to be the civil head of the Territory also. The colony continued to flourish, more and more, year by year, and its people, as they grew prosperous, grew also more confident in their own strength, and firmer in the assertion of their rights. The history we have glanced at is enough to account for a state of feeling and of opinion between the Mormons and the rest of the country, which might, at any moment, by aggression on one side, or resentment on the other, give rise to the most vindictive and bitter hostility. Petty causes of jealousy had, in the course of years, been constantly arising, till at length, the serious animosity of the Mormons by Judge Drummond and other U. S. officials, who asserted that they were driven from the Territory by Mormon outrages, and that Brigham Young and his followers were in open resistance and defiance of the U. S. government; brought about a crisis in the affairs of the Territory which had to be speedily, and ought to have been wisely met. With the charges of Judge Drummond the public is familiar. How many of them are true it is difficult to say; but in justice to the Mormons, it should be stated that they contradict and have answered them all; and only one of them, the burning of the library and records of the U. S. Court, has seemed worthy of specification by Mr. Buchanan in any of his messages upon Utah; and this, since Gov. Cumming entered into possession of his office, has been ascertained to be entirely without foundation. But true or false, it was these charges which were made the pretenses for the expedition of 1857 against Utah.

In June, 1857, Gen. Harney was appointed to the command of the troops who were to accompany Mr. Cumming, the new Governor appointed in Brigham Young's place. The army was ordered to act as a posse comitatus to assist the Governor, if necessary, in establishing his own authority, and in enforcing obedience to the laws. In his annual message to Congress, six months later, the President set forth the considerations which influenced the Executive in sending out this expedition. It was not easy to reconcile this message with the steps which had been taken from the time of the appointment of Gen. Harney to the opening of Congress; and still more difficult is it to give to it any creditable explanation in the light of subsequent events. In it the President assumes that while Brigham Young was legally the Governor of Utah, he also was the head of the Mormon church, and "professed to govern its members and dispose of their property by direct inspiration and authority from the Almighty." On the other hand, the people believed "with a fanatical spirit that he was governor of the Territory by divine appointment, and obeyed his commands as if these were direct revelations from heaven." But Mr. Buchanan is careful to say, "with the religious opinions of the Mormons, as [so] long as they remained opinions, however deplorable in themselves and revolting to the moral and religious sentiments of all Christendom, I had no right to interfere." Actions, not opinions, he declares, are the "legitimate subjects for the jurisdiction of the civil magistrate," and he accordingly so instructed Gov. Cumming, hoping that no necessity would arise to resort to military force. The sight of troops, he felt, would be quite enough to frighten the Mormons into good behavior. But that obstinate people would not be so alarmed as he expected, while, in the meantime, their opinions had hardened into action, and they had already committed acts of rebellion which, in the opinion of the President, was a result "long contemplated" by Brigham Young. This incipient rebellion, this "long contemplated result," existed, as the President had already said, because the fanaticism of the Mormons, and their blind, unquestioning faith in their leader, had betrayed them into a position as foolish as it was treasonable. In such a rebellion he could have no alternative but to interfere with "religious opinions," which were no longer abstract opinions merely, but the basis on which rested "actions" of the most reprehensible character. The very purpose of the expedition, and the instructions to Gov. Cumming were, therefore, inconsistent with each other, and it was impossible to blind the eyes of the Mormons to so palpable a fact. They also believed in actions, and judged of President Buchanan's intentions rather by what he did than what he said, and governed themselves accordingly.

After the appointment of General Harney to take command of the expedition, the administration were persuaded, apparently, that there was more immediate necessity for troops in Kansas than in Utah, as the delay in getting the army beyond that Territory is, on any other supposition, inexplicable. It was, indeed, openly charged upon the Federal government that one of the objects of the Utah war was to afford an excuse for keeping an army in Kansas during a critical period in her affairs, and to provide fat contracts wherewith to control votes. But however this may be, it is certain that if there was any necessity at all for the expedition against the Mormons, the dilatoriness with which the preparations were made for it, and the delays which occurred before the troops were on their march, gave strong reason for supposing that more than Mormonism was meant to be subdued, if occasion called for it. It was a month after the appointment of Harney, before even an officer of the army was sent forward to secure a location for a camp, and make purchases of fuel and forage for the troops when they should reach Utah. Two months passed away and the expedition had still to be begun, when Gen. Harney was superseded by Colonel Johnston, who was ordered to make arrangements "to set out from Fort Leavenworth at as early a date as practicable." Yet the President said in the message—to which we must necessarily look as the authority for the motives which prompted the Executive to send an army to Utah—that there "no longer remained any government in Utah but the despotism of Brigham Young;" that "in such a condition of affairs in the Territory," the chief Executive magistrate "could not mistake the path of duty," which was "to restore the supremacy of the Constitution and laws;" and certainly if such was the condition of affairs, the steps taken to fulfill the duty of a parent government to so rebellious a province, were singularly deliberate. It is not easy to escape the reflection that either the Utah expedition was a contractor's job, or that the government is pitifully imbecile in the punishment of treason.

In September, Capt. Van Vliet, the officer sent forward to provide for the coming army, returned and reported the result of his mission. On arriving at Great Salt Lake City, he had sought and obtained an interview with Governor Young, to whom he made known, in accordance with his orders, the purport of his visit, and the approach of the United States troops. Governor Young replied that the Mormons had "been persecuted, murdered, and robbed in Missouri and Illinois, both by the mob and State authorities, and that now the United States were about to pursue the same course; and that therefore he and the people of Utah had determined to resist all persecution at the commencement, and that the troops now on the march for Utah should not enter the Great Salt Lake Valley;" and, adds Capt. Van Vliet, "as he uttered these words, all those present concurred most heartily in what he said." In subsequent interviews, "the same determination to resist to the death the entrance of the troops into the valley was expressed by Governor Young and those about him." And when, in reply to these expressions of determined hostility, Capt. Van Vliet assured the Mormons, that though they might prevent the small military force then approaching from getting through the narrow defiles and rugged passes of the mountains, the U. S. Government would, the next season, send troops enough to overcome all opposition; the answer was invariably the same: "We are aware that such will be the case; but when these troops arrive they will find Utah a desert; every house will be burned to the ground, every tree cut down, and every field laid waste. We have three years' provisions on hand, which we will 'cache,' and then take to the mountains, and bid defiance to all the powers of the government." That these were no idle threats, Capt. Van Vliet was convinced. He believed, not only that the Mormons would resist the advance of the army, but that that resistance, owing to the smallness of the force, the lateness of the season, and the nature of the country, would be successful. He thought, however, that they would not resort to actual hostilities till the last moment, but their plan of operations would be a system of harassment, by burning the grass, cutting up the roads, and stampeding the animals, till the severity of winter should put a stop to the hostile invasion.

For such a reception of their new Governor and his posse comitatus, the Mormons felt that they had ample justification. What that justification was, it is proper to state; for however erroneous we may consider Mormon religion, and however detestable Mormon morality, they should not be debarred of that privilege which is accorded to all criminals. Utah, they reasoned, is a Territory of the United States, and Brigham Young its Governor, under an appointment from Washington. He had never, he declared, received any official notice of the recall of that appointment, and was bound, therefore, as it was his right, to continue to fulfill the duties of his office, and defend his people. The charges of incivism which were made against them, and which they repudiated, they contend, rested upon general report, originated with corrupt officials, and had never been brought to the test of judicial examination. To such an examination, they affirmed, they were ready and anxious to submit, and that they would be glad to meet their accusers face to face. But as the Government of the United States chose to pursue another course with them, to judge them first and try them afterward, they were determined, warned by the experience of former years in Missouri and Illinois, to defend their homes so long as any hope remained of doing so successfully, and when overcome by superior numbers, to flee to some more hospitable land, and a juster government, and to leave behind them a country desolated, and towns and cities spoiled. In the proclamation made in September to the people of Utah, by Governor Young, he said: "We are invaded by a hostile force, who are evidently assailing us to accomplish our overthrow and destruction. For the last twenty-five years we have trusted officials of the government, from constables and justices, to judges, governors, and presidents, only to be scorned, held in derision, insulted, and betrayed. Our houses have been plundered, and then burned, our fields laid waste, our principal men butchered while under the pledged faith of the government for their safety, and our families driven from their homes to find that shelter in the barren wilderness, and that protection among hostile savages, which were denied them in the boasted abodes of Christianity and civilization." The statement is forcible, and, unfortunately, as relates the past, too true. He announces, therefore, in consideration of all these things, and the issue thus forced upon them, that they are compelled to resort to the "great first law of self-preservation," and as Governor of the Territory, forbids the entrance upon it of any armed force, and proclaims martial law.

In a letter of Capt. Van Vliet's to the Secretary of War, two months later, that officer says "that Governor Young informed me that he had no objection to the troops themselves entering the Territory; but if they allowed them to do so, it would be opening the door for the entrance of the rabble from the frontiers, who would, as in former times, persecute and annoy them;"* and to prevent this they, the Mormons, had determined to oppose all interference of the government in the affairs of their Territory." That Young was desirous of a peaceful issue of the difficulty between his people and the government of the United States can hardly now be doubted, and that the government was aware that such was all along his wish seems, at least, not improbable. "On the 21st of September," writes Col. Alexander, under date of October 9th, at Camp Winfield, "I met Capt. Van Vliet returning from Salt Lake City, and was informed by him that although the Mormons, or rather Governor Young, were determined to oppose the entrance into the city, yet he was assured that no armed resistance would be attempted if he went no further than Fort Bridger or Fort Supply. I was still further convinced of this by the circumstance that a train of more than one hundred contractor's wagons had been parked for nearly three weeks on Ham's fork without defence, and had been unmolested, although they contained provisions and supplies which would have been of great use to the Mormons." And as if in confirmation of this statement, Governor Young, on the 29th of September, in his first letter to "the officer commanding the forces now invading Utah Territory," warning him not to proceed with that invasion, says: "Should you deem this impracticable" (to retire immediately) "and prefer to remain until spring in the vicinity of your present encampment, Black fork, or Green River, you can do so in peace and unmolested, on condition that you deposit your arms and ammunition with Lewis Robinson, quartermaster-general of the Territory, and leave in the spring, as soon as the condition of the roads will permit you to march." The proposition was, of course, an absurd one, not to be thought of for a moment by a soldier, nor is it at all likely that Governor Young supposed it would be acceded to. But it at least shows that he was desirous to avoid a collision if he could do so with honor, and consistently with what he deemed to be his duty to the people under his charge. He evinced the same spirit in inviting the officers of the army to visit Salt Lake City.

Such were the attitudes of the respective belligerents at the commencement of the famous war with which Mr. Buchanan has illustrated his administration. The army of the United States, when it could be spared from Kansas, took up its line of march for the West, and in due season reached Fort Bridger, more than a hundred miles short of Salt Lake City, where it went into winter quarters. In the meantime, the Mormons, about the middle of September, as an earnest of the reception they meant to give the invasion, destroyed two provision trains of the army. In December, their leading men were indicted for treason by the grand jury of the District Court of the United States, sitting at Camp Scott, the damages for the destruction of the trains being laid at a million of dollars. These were the most serious acts of hostility. But the trains have never been paid for, and the traitors named in the indictment have never been tried. The Mormons deserted their outlying villages and farms, and those who were not needed to watch the enemy and guard the passes of the mountains, betook themselves to Great Salt Lake City, where they were edified by the sermons of the elders among the saints, exhorted to be faithful to "brother Young," to have none but him to rule over them, and to be assured that the "poor, miserable devils" who were coming among them "would be certain to go to hell as sure as they lived." The army which, had it left Kansas early enough in the season, might, instead of the Mormons, have occupied Great Salt Lake City—providing always that there had been any Great Salt Lake City to occupy—or might, at least, have had the satisfaction of attempting to fight their way thither, rested ingloriously on their arms, cheered only with the hope that their laurels would grow with the other vegetation of the opening spring.

But the war was to have quite another issue than that of blood. A gentleman of Philadelphia, who knew something of the Mormons, and who had, in former times, by sympathy and acts of friendship, gained their confidence, packed his saddle-bags and started for Utah. What credentials, if any, Colonel Kane may have carried from Washington, is known only to himself and Mr. Buchanan. The world only knows, and is only concerned to know, that what an army of the United States, at an expense of millions of dollars, failed to do, was done at his private charges by a single energetic man of straightforward intentions and sound judgment. By a few days of friendly converse, he subdued the Mormons. The "Lion of the Lord" was tamed; the gates of the city of the Great Salt Lake were in due time thrown wide open; Governor Cumming and his train of government officials were invited to enter; the proclamation of the President, sent out in April last, by two special commissioners, was made public, and by was offered "a full and free pardon" to all "for the seditions and treasons heretofore by them committed," with the assurance that he made "no crusade against their religion," as "the Constitution and laws of the country could take no notice of their creed, whether it be true or false;" and so the army, whether rejoicing or not rejoicing in a bloodless victory, took possession of the Territory of Utah, and at the latest date, was amusing itself with private theatricals. "The present condition of the Territory of Utah," says the President in his late annual message to Congress, "when contrasted with what it was one year ago, is a subject for congratulation." The country, no doubt, agrees with him; but probably the congratulations would be heartier and warmer had Col. Kane and the commissioners first gone to Utah, and Gov. Cumming and his posse comitatus have rather followed than preceded them—had so improbable a necessity in that case have arisen. It would have been much, it is thought, had the country been saved the disgrace, in the eyes of foreign powers, of submitting for six months to the defiance of a handful of religious fanatics, who, if there was any necessity of subduing them at all, should have been instantly and completely brought into subjection by a government of the resources of the United States: it would have been something to have been saved the necessarily large expenditure attending the march of an army, and which, in this case, has become enormous, considering the object aimed at and the end gained, to the great enrichment of speculating and speculating contractors; but it would have been far more could we have been saved the humiliating spectacle of seeing our government undertake a war on insufficient grounds, to escape from which it is compelled to be indebted to the good offices of a private citizen.

The Senators, with the exception of those from the Xlth and XXXlst Districts, were elected in 1857. In the last named district, Erastus S. Prosser, Union Opposition, was elected to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Wadsworth, Dem., and in the former, Henry C. Wetmore was elected by the Republicans and Americans, to fill a vacancy caused by the appointment of Senator Mandeville as postmaster. Mr. Mandeville insists that he did not accept the appointment, and is, therefore, still a Senator.

The LEGISLATURE (elected in 1857 for two years) is Democratic in both branches.

ARKANSAS.

The people of this State elected Congressmen, Members of the Legislature, and certain Judicial Officers in 1858. But the voters so strongly adhere to what is facetiously termed "Democratic" that the details of their elections have ceased to possess any general interest. For Congress in the First District, Mr. Thomas C. Hindman, the regular Democratic candidate, received 13,255 votes to 2853 for Crosby, Independent.

In the Second District, Albert Rust, regular Democrat, received 16,302 votes to 3104 for J. A. Jones, and 3452 for Thos. S. Drew, Independent candidates.

Two years ago the vote of the State for Congress stood: in the First District for Greenwood, Dem., 15,329; Thompson, Am., 6161. Majority for Greenwood, 9268. In the Second District, Mr. Warren, Dem., received 11,835; Fowler, Am., 5701. Majority for Warren, 6134. For President, Mr. Buchanan's vote in the State was 21,910; Mr. Fillmore's 10,757. Majority for Buchanan, 11,153.

The LEGISLATURE is strongly Democratic.

TENNESSEE.

The only general elections held in this State during the year 1858, were for a Judge of the Supreme Court, and to ascertain the sense of the people relative to a proposed Convention to amend the State Constitution. The people seem to have taken very little interest in the election, as less than one-fifth of the voters voted on the occasion. The vote for Judge, which does not appear to have been a party contest, resulted as follows: Wright, 12,867; Walker, 6885. Majority for Wright, 5982.

The call for a Constitution was voted down very emphatically, the returns footing up for a Convention, 4210; against a Convention, 23,563. Majority against a Convention, 19,353.

TEXAS.

 Baldwin's majority, 8432; Buchanan over Fillmore, 17203.

Mr. Curry was supported by Anti-Lecompton Democrats and Republicans.
 For Comptroller, Melony, Lecompton Dem., received 44285 votes; Dawley, Anti-Lecompton Dem., 27759; Gunn, Rep., 7481.

Mr. Gunn's vote does not represent the Republican strength of the State, as many Republicans voted for the Anti-Lecompton candidate, Mr. Dawley.

For Congress, McKibbin received 32928; Dndley, 22741; Tracy, 9381.

Messrs. McKibbin and Dudley were the candidates of the Anti-Lecompton or Broderick Democracy, while the Republicans supported Mr. McKibbin and Mr. Tracy, and the Lecompton or Administration Democracy did not nominate candidates for Congress at all, contending that the election should, according to law, take place in 1859, and not in 1858. Of course, another election will be held, and there will be a contest at Washington for seats, unless Messrs. McKibbin and Dudley should be re-elected next year.

DANA, aided by a numerous select corps of writers in all branches of Science, Art, and Literature. This work is being published in about 15 large octavo volumes, each containing 750 two-column pages. Vols. I., II., III., and IV., are now ready, each containing near 2,500 original articles. An additional volume will be published once in about three months.

The New American Cyclopædia is popular without being superficial, learned but not pedantic, comprehensive but sufficiently detailed, free from personal pique and party prejudice, fresh and yet accurate. It is a complete statement of all that is known upon every important topic within the scope of human intelligence. Every important article in it has been specially written for its pages by men who are authorities upon the topics of which they speak. They are required to bring the subject up to the present moment—to state just how it stands now. All the statistical information is from the latest reports; the geographical accounts keep pace with the latest explorations; historical matters include the freshest just views; the biographical notices not only speak of the dead, but also of the living. It is a library of itself.

ABRIDGMENT OF THE DEBATES OF CONGRESS: Being a Political History of the United States, from the organization of the first Federal Congress in 1789 to 1856. Edited and compiled by Hon. THOMAS H. BENTON, from the Official Records of Congress.

The work will be completed in 15 royal octavo volumes of 750 pages each, 9 of which are now ready. An additional volume will be published once in three months.

Price, in Cloth, $3 00; Law Sheep, $3 50; Half Mor., $4 00; Half Calf, $4 50, each.

STRONG AS LINEN.

IVORY POLISHED

PATENT GLACE SPOOL COTTON,

MANUFACTURED BY

JONAS BROOK & BROTHERS,

MELTHAM MILLS, ENGLAND.

WHITE, BLACK, AND ALL COLORS, ON SPOOLS OF 200 OR 500 YARDS.

The great demand for this Sewing Cotton has compelled the Manufacturers largely to increase their production, and their Agent can now promptly supply all orders. Being made of the

it combines the SMOOTHNESS AND LUSTRE OF SILK, with the STRENGTH OF LINEN, and for either MACHINE or HAND SEWING it has no equal. In competition with all other Spool Cotton at the Great Exhibitions in London and Paris, it took the highest prizes awarded to Sewing Cotton, and the justness of this decision is confirmed by thousands of families and manufacturers now using it in the United States. Its great popularity has brought into the market numerous imitations, which are sold at lower prices, but which will not stand the friction of the needle, nor retain their strength after washing. Brook's Cotton may be known by their name and crest—"A GOAT'S HEAD"—on one end of the spool. Lengths marked on each spool guaranteed.

Sold by respectable dealers generally throughout the country, and in assorted cases of 100 dozen each by the Manufacturers' Agent,

WM. HENRY SMITH,

32 and 34 Vesey st., New York.

SMOOTH AS SILK.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.

A BOON TO THE SICK.

The want of a sterling medicinal to meet the ills and necessities of the suffering portion of humanity, and one entirely free from mineral and other deleterious particles, was severely felt till this all powerful medicine was ushered into the world; HOLLOWAY'S INVALUABLE PILLS have become the HOUSEHOLD REMEDY of all nations. Their attribute is to PREVENT as well as to CURE; assisting nature in her task of VITAL and FUNCTIONARY REFORMATION.

BAD LEGS, OLD SORES, AND ULCERS.

Cases of many years' standing that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment, have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful unguent. N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder affixed to each box.

SOMETHING NEW.

B. T. BABBITT'S BEST MEDICINAL SALERATUS is manufactured from common salt. B. T. Babbitt's best Saleratus is prepared entirely different from other Saleratus. All the deleterious matter extracted in such a manner as to produce Bread, Biscuit, and all kinds of Cake, without containing a particle of Saleratus when the Bread or Cake is baked; thereby producing wholesome results. Every particle of Saleratus is turned to gas and passes through the Bread or Biscuit while baking; consequently nothing remains but common salt, water and flour. You will readily perceive, by the taste of this Saleratus, that it is entirely different from other Saleratus. When you purchase one paper you should take the old paper with you, and be very particular and get the next exactly like the first (name and picture, twisted loaf bread, with a glass effervescing water on the top).

Full directions for making Bread with Sour Milk and Cream Tartar, and all kinds of Pastry; also for making Soda water; also directions for making Seidlitz Powders will accompany each package.

B. T. BABBITT,

Nos. 68 and 70 Washington St., N. Y., and No. 85 India St., Boston.

PURE CONCENTRATED POTASH,

In 6 lb. cans — Six pounds of this Potash are equal to twelve pounds of common Potash. This article is broken into small pieces, suitable for retailing in the smallest quantities. The attention of Druggists is especially called to this Potash. Cases of 1 doz., 2 doz., 3 doz., and 6 doz.

The Proprietor of this POTASH has for many years seen the necessity of having some reliable standard for the strength of POTASH. The adulteration has become so general, that it has, notwithstanding its valuable properties, gone nearly out of use. The Proprietor has taken the responsibility of subscribing his name to every package, and warrants the strength to be uniform, and when used, always producing the same results. Potash many times is adulterated with salt, which is destructive in making soap; it makes the ladies say they did not have good luck, etc. One other reason that Potash has gone out of use is, it is so unpleasant to handle, being put up in wooden casks, and becoming a liquid in many cases, and very troublesome to the retailers.

Now the Proprietor first obtains pure Potashes, always being the same strength, and producing the same results; and will warrant it in all cases, if the directions are followed, to produce double the effect in making soaps, and all other purposes for which Potash is used, with full directions for making the best of Soft, Hard, or Fancy Soaps, in one to five hours, without smell in the house, if made often while the grease is sweet. It is made with little trouble; the ley is all prepared in five or ten minutes, and the kettle can stand on the stove, at a moderate boil, until its contents becomes soap, which is usually in about one to five hours. The soap must be all rinsed out of the clothes before drying.

B. T. BABBITT'S

SOAP POWDER!

This SOAP POWDER has been in use for the last ten years, and gives the best of satisfaction. There have been many kinds introduced in market, but no brand retains patronage except BABBITT'S, and that continues to gradually increase. One family will get all their clothes hung out by 10 o'clock, and very white at that; this leads to inquiry.

Neighbors will say, how is it that you always get your washing out so much earlier than others, and so much whiter. The answer is, we use BABBITT'S SOAP POWDER. This has been many times related in my office. One man at the South got a box of SOAP POWDER to sell; he kept it about six months, thinking it a dead letter; finally took some in his own house for his wife to try, and the result led to the above description, and the sale commenced rapidly.

This SOAP POWDER not only whitens the clothes, but when soaked according to directions over night, it causes the dirt to rinse out with slight rubbing, which is always very desirable for the ladies. No bleaching on the grass is required, and the clothes will last three times as long from not being rubbed to pieces.

B. T. BABBITT,

Nos. 63 and 70 Washington St., N. Y., and No. 83 India St., Boston.

FOR SALE BY ALL GROCERS AND DRUGGISTS.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS

Are the Original Vegetable and Universal Medicine, and weighed by the public 108 years, and not found wanting. Intrinsic merit is relied upon as their claim to public favor; because their usefulness is measured by their curative, their purgative qualities. They cure or greatly relieve all disease, because they open all the natural outlets; and no disease or pain can affect us EXCEPT WHEN SOME OF THESE ARE CLOSED.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS have restored millions to health, when all other medicines had failed, and the patient left to die.

Though entirely vegetable and innocent, yet they are more searching and more to be depended upon as expellents than calomel. While sickness is present, they may be used daily; because they do not take any essential or good property from the blood, but actually impart to it vitalizing qualities. They require no change in diet or especial care against cold or otherwise.

Fevers, Rheumatisms, Influenza, Colds, Coughs, and especially sudden attacks of severe sickness, often resulting in death, which all are subject to contract when obliged to expose themselves to the changes of our variable climate—these, two or three doses of BRANDRETH'S PILLS cure, save long doctor's bills and life. Let the wise consider.

FEVER AND AGUE CURED.

Mr. John Y. Haight, Supervisor of New Castle, Westchester county, desires the attention of those interested. He says, November 1858: "I was, about two years ago, attacked with fever and ague, which, notwithstanding the best medical advice, continued to sorely afflict me for six tedious months. I became yellow as saffron, and reduced to skin and bone. Medicine and physicians were abandoned in despair. As an experiment, I concluded to try a single dose of six of Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills on an empty stomach, early in the morning. This first dose seemed to arouse all the latent energies of my exhausted frame; I feared the worst—their purgative effect was different from anything I had ever used or heard of. At length this effect ceased, and I seemed lighter and breathed freer. That evening I was, indeed, sensibly better, and slept soundly all night. The next day I followed the same course, and took the same dose of Pills. I continued to take the Pills in this way about three weeks, when I found myself entirely cured. It is two years ago, and I have had no return; my health has been surprisingly good, and I have used no medicine since. I have made this statement in accordance with what I conceive to be my duty."

OBSTRUCTION.

A young lady, beautiful and healthy, took cold, which caused a serious obstruction for two years; her health was broken down, and her beauty departed. At length, Brandreth's Pills were tried: eleven doses, of from two to four, were taken in fifteen days preceding the usual period. Regularity was restored, and her health and good looks recovered.

WORMS.

Brandreth's Pills are the best vermifuge; they are infallible. A little child, six years old, for some weeks was drooping; its mother gave it one of Brandreth's sugar-coated pills—the next day there came away a worm sixteen inches long, and as large as a child's finger. The child was well.

PLEURISY.

A gentleman, away from home, was taken with pleurisy; the inflammation was terrible; every breath made him writhe with agony. Eight Brandreth's Pills were swallowed, and warm oil applied locally; the pills operated, and the pain was relieved; plenty of gruel was taken, and six more pills, and the second day the patient was cured.

INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS CURED.

Gentleman aged fifty, florid complexion, scrofulous habit; sudden attack of inflammation of the kidneys; pain excruciating. Could neither sit, lie down, nor stand up without mortal agony. He had the assistance of the best Physicians the village afforded, without any mitigation of his sufferings. When hope had departed, as a last means, he swallowed eight Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pills, and then applied over the seat of the pain a mustard plaster. In five hours the pills operated, and though the pain continued until this effect occurred, yet it then ceased entirely, and he recovered his health in a few days. Over two years have now passed, and there has been no return of the disease.

CHRONIC COSTIVENESS CURED.

A gentleman of New York suffered from pain in the chest, and dyspepsia, in consequence of severe costiveness. He made his will, and fully expected that his days were short. But he was prevailed upon to take one Brandreth's Vegetable Universal Pill each night while they benefited him. He commenced, and was relieved even the first day. He took another, and yet another; his health improved, and he still continued to take a pill each night. He did this for three hundred and sixty-five nights, and by that time he had become entirely cured, and added seventy-five pounds to his weight.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS are sold at 25 cents per box—with directions—the same sugar-coated.

GOOD NEWS.—A reduction in the prices of Sewing Machines is announced in our advertising columns. Their utility is established beyond question; and, at the present prices, we see no reason why they should not be found, as they ought to be, in every household. Several varieties are manufactured adapted to various purposes. So far as public opinion has been formed and uttered, the preference is emphatically accorded to the Wheeler and Wilson machine for family use, and for manufactures in the same range of purpose and material. During the present autumn the trials have been numerous, and all the patents of any pretension have been brought fairly into competition. In every case, the Wheeler and Wilson machine has won the highest premium. We may instance the State Fairs of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Illinois, Wisconsin, Virginia, Michigan, Indiana, Mississippi, Missouri, and California, and the Fairs in Cincinnati, Chicago, St. Louis, Baltimore, Richmond, and San Francisco. At the Fair of the St. Louis Mechanical Association, the Examining Committee was composed of twenty-five Ladies of the highest social standing, who, without a dissenting voice, awarded for the Wheeler and Wilson Machine, the highest and only premium, a Silver Pitcher, valued at $75. If these facts do not establish a reputation, we know not what can.—Christian Advocate and Journal.

DR. J. F. CHURCHILL'S DISCOVERY!

(MADE TO THE FRENCH ACADEMY OF MEDICINE, IN 1856)

THE HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME, SODA, AND POTASH.

The discovery of a SPECIFIC REMEDY for the treatment of TUBERCULOSIS (CONSUMPTION), made after years of scientific research, by the celebrated Dr. JOHN FRANCIS CHURCHILL, of Paris, marks a new and important Era in the history of Chemico-Medical Science.

It has long been known that, among the inorganic or mineral substances which enter into the composition of the body, PHOSPHORUS is to be met with in considerable quantities, but chemists and physiologists are, as yet, unable to decide whether it is found only as phosphoric acid; that is, in a state of complete oxydation, and, as such, no longer liable to be burnt by the oxygen of the atmosphere, or whether it also exists in a lower state of oxydation, and, as such, capable of keeping up the slow combustion which constitutes one of the principal phenomena of life.

Dr. Churchill came to the conclusion, founded on the successful treatment of a large number of cases in the second and third stages of Consumption, that PHOSPHORUS existed in the body in an oxydizable or combustible condition; and that the PROXIMATE CAUSE, or at least an indispensable condition of the tubercular diathesis, is the DECREASE IN THE SYSTEM of the Phosphorus it contains in an oxygenizable state. Hence, he drew the obvious conclusion that the SPECIFIC REMEDY of the Disease consists in RESTORING THE DEFICIENT ELEMENT, by the use of Phosphorus, in such a state that it may be both oxydizable and assimilable—that is, capable of entering into and forming a part of the system.

These conditions were found to exist in the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME, SODA, AND POTASH, which seemed best to fulfill the two requisites of OXYDATION, or COMBUSTION, and ASSIMILATION. The use of the Hypophosphites shows these preparations to have a two-fold specific action. On the one hand, THEY INCREASE THE PRINCIPLE, whatever that may be, WHICH CONSTITUTES NERVOUS FORCE; and on the other they are THE MOST POWERFUL BLOOD GENERATING AGENTS, far superior to any hitherto known.

The Physiological effects of their use are shown by an INCREASE OF NERVOUS POWER, sometimes even from the first day of their administration, together with an UNUSUAL FEELING OF COMFORT AND STRENGTH. THE APPETITE INCREASES often in an extraordinary manner. The evacuations become REGULAR AND MORE ABUNDANT; the perspirations, if any have existed, cease; SLEEP BECOMES CALM AND PROFOUND.

"The effect of these salts," states Dr. C in his paper to the Academy, "upon the tubercular diathesis, is IMMEDIATE, all the general symptoms disappearing with a rapidity which is really marvellous. If the tuberculous deposit is of recent formation, if softening has only just set in, and does not proceed too rapidly, the tubercles are absorbed and disappear. When the deposit has existed for a certain time, when the softening has attained a certain degree, it sometimes continues in spite of the treatment; and the issue of the disease then depends upon the anatomical condition of the local lesion, on its extent, and upon the existence or non-existence of complications."

The Hypophosphites have not only a CURATIVE effect, but will, if used whenever there exists a suspicion of pulmonary disease, prevent its development, and thus act as a PRESERVATIVE WITH REGARD TO CONSUMPTION, just as vaccination does with regard to small pox.

The cure of Consumption, in the second and third stages (at a period when there can be no uncertainty as to the nature of the disease), can be obtained, in all cases, by this treatment, except when the existing lesion of the lungs is of itself sufficient to produce death. Contrary to the opinion generally received, the third stage of consumption is, all other circumstances being equal, more amenable to treatment than the second. Hereditary predisposition seems in no way to counteract the effect of the hypophosphites; patients, in whom it was most strongly marked, recovering as rapidly as others.

The American Medical Monthly, edited by Dr. Parker, of New York, says: "Whatever may be our conclusions with reference to the claims of Dr. Churchill for the Hypophosphites as sovereign remedies in tuberculosis [Consumption] THERE CAN BE NO DOUBT AS TO THE VALUE OF THESE SALTS AS REMEDIAL AGENTS."

This Remedy is equally beneficial in all cases of nervous debility, scrofula, loss of vital energy, indigestion, female complaints, and chronic or constitutional diseases.

THE HYPOPHOSPHITES

Are now offered to those suffering from consumption and kindred diseases, as prescribed by Dr. Churchill, and they may therefore be relied upon as chemically pure, and as THE ONLY RELIABLE FORM OF THIS INVALUABLE REMEDY.

Beware of Spurious preparations claiming to be Dr. Churchill's.
Single bottles, TWO DOLLARS, which will be sent by mail in a concentrated solution, when so ordered. Three bottles for FIVE DOLLARS, which will be forwarded by Express in all practicable cases. Full directions for use accompany each package. Druggists supplied.

FAMILY SEWING MACHINE.

This Machine was awarded the First Premium Silver Medal and Diploma at the New York State Fair, held at Buffalo, October, 1857, and at the Michigan State Fair, held at Detroit, October, 1858, for Practical Utility, Durability, Simplicity, Capacity and Beauty; Singer's and Wheeler & Wilson's high-priced machines being in competition.

This is the most wonderful, ingenious and yet simple machine ever produced. It has been pronounced by skillful and scientific mechanics to be the most durable, practical and complete machine ever invented. The examiner of Sewing Machines at the United States Patent Office remarked that it was the most marked improvement in Sewing Machines he had seen from the beginning.

It is emphatically the best Machine for family use. It makes the most reliable stitch, which no stretching or pressure will be likely to break. It runs without noise, is reliable in operation, and is not liable to get out of order. It will work as fast and do as good work as any of the high-priced machines, and any person with ordinary skill can use it.

To avoid delay and risk in transit, we have made arrangements with all the principal Express Cos. to act as our Agents in delivering Machines and collecting money, so that parties at a distance have only to send us their order by mail, specifying which style of Machine they wish to have delivered by the expressman, who will receive the price and give our receipt.

TIME, MONEY AND LABOR SAVED

BY USING THE

"H. B. AMES'

GERMAN MAGICAL DETERSIVE SOAP."

This article (formerly known as the "H. B. Ames' German Chemical Erasive Soap") is made by a process not known to any other manufacturer in the United States, and possesses the following advantages over all other washing soaps, viz.: It may be used equally well with hard or soft water. It requires not half the quantity as of other soaps to accomplish the same object. Clothes need but little rubbing and no boiling if thoroughly rinsed, thus avoiding the wear upon the washboard. It does not require one-half the time and labor to accomplish the same object that the best family soaps do, and it tends to set the colors, and does not injure the fabric.

N.B.—As there are numerous vile imitations of the article palmed off on the public, be particular to observe that each bar is stamped "H. B. Ames' German Magical Detersive Soap, Newburgh, N. Y."

UNEQUALLED AMERICAN WATCHES,

Manufactured at Waltham, Mass., have received the Gold Medal and the Highest Premium of the American Institute, and similar awards wherever they have been exhibited. These Watches are constructed by a novel system of machinery, in a single establishment, and have been proved, by repeated trials of unexampled severity, to possess all the requisites of perfect timekeepers, uniformly more reliable than any other watches in the market. The price of American movements, without cases, is about one-half the cost of reliable English movements.

OUR NEW CHRONODROMETER.

We have just perfected this unequalled time-keeper for rating the speed of horses to the fourth of a second. Our Watches are all constructed on the simplest form of the patent-lever escapement, all being operated by a very small amount of motive power, with a less number of parts than any other movement. Under every variety of motion, climate, and position, the accuracy of all our watches is the same, and, as a peculiar advantage, there is no danger of stopping under the most violent exercise. The following gentlemen, among many others, attest the superiority of these Watches as timekeepers: Dr. J. Marion Sims, Hon. Horace Greeley, Hon. John Appleton, Jr., Gen. George P. Morris, Carlos D. Stuart, Frank Leslie, Prof. Wm. M. Phelps, Hon. Nathaniel P. Banks, James W. Simonton, Esq., Dr. James O. Noyes, Hon. A. Burlingame, N. P. Willis, Esq., James Cruikshank, Esq., Dr. Abel Stevens, Hon. S. S. Randall, Hon. Daniel F. Tiemann, Abram S. Hewitt, Esq., C. Edwards Lester, Esq. Peter Cooper, Esq., Wilson G. Hunt, Esq., John H. Brower, Esq., Hon. H. H. Van Dyck.

CAUTION.—No Watch is genuine unless accompanied by a Certificate.

DOUGLAS & SHERWOOD'S SKIRTS.

We respectfully call the attention of the Trade to our well-known and universally approved Skirts. It is now five years since we introduced our first styles to the public, and during that time we have produced nearly one hundred varieties—all of which have been well received, and many of them have become so well known that they are as familiar to the ladies as "Household Words."

Some of our most popular styles have been copied by the leading manufacturers of London, Paris, Vienna, and other large cities of the Old World, who have thus unwillingly testified to their superiority, besides countless imitators in the United States. Many thousand skirts of inferior quality (and often infringements of our various patents) have been sold for ours, which never emanated from our establishment. We would here state that all the skirts made by us are stamped with our name, and, if patented, with the date of the patent.

The most of our goods are made under U. S. patents, and we caution all against infringements of them. The following are some of our most approved patents:

THE ADJUSTABLE BUSTLE, Patented April 21st, 1857.

This is the only BUSTLE that can be adjusted to suit the pleasure of the wearer—it is so well known that a description is unnecessary.

METAL SLIDE, Patented Dec., 1858.

This is the slide we use on our CELEBRATED EXPANSION SKIRT. This skirt is also made under PATENT dated Nov. 9, 1858, for the PRINCIPLE OF EXPANSION.

DETACHABLE HOOP FASTENING, Patented Nov. 12, 1858.

This last-named patent is the "ne-plus-ultra" of improvement upon Hooped Skirts; it enables the wearer of muslin skirts in which it is used to take out the springs, and have the skirt washed at pleasure; the lack of this may be said to have been the "night-mare" of skirt-wearers, who may now rest in their slumbers.

The most popular skirt made with this fastening is the MATINEE SKIRT. We have other valuable patents which we use, also some pending; one of them, the TOURNARE CORSET will be introduced during the month of January. It has been pronounced by all who have seen it—among whom were several eminent members of the medical faculty—to be the only corset without an objection, either artistic or physiological.

Jobbers can be supplied by the agents named below, upon the same terms and at the same prices as at our office in New York. DOUGLAS & SHERWOOD, 51, 53 & 55 White st.

"Every farmer should give his sons two or three square rods of ground, well prepared, with the avails of which they may buy it. Every mechanic should put a receiving box in some conspicuous place in the house, to catch the stray pennies for the like purpose.

"It is a great labor-saver—it has saved us time enough in one year's use to pay for itself: and that must be deemed good property, which will clear itself once a year."—Mass. Life Boat.

"All young persons should have a standard Dictionary at their elbows. And while you are about it, get the best; that Dictionary is Noah Webster's. The great work unabridged. If you are too poor, save the amount from off your back, to put it into your head."—Phrenological Journal.

THE GREAT FAMILY PAPER! ⁷⁹

PROSPECTUS FOR THE YEAR 1859.

THE proprietor of the NEW YORK LEDGER is gratified at having it in his power to announce in his Prospectus for the new year—1859—that all the old popular and eminent writers of the LEDGER staff have been retained, and new ones added. Among the latter we are pleased to mention the name of the Hon. EDWARD EVERETT, who is to furnish a series of articles, to be continued during the entire year, under the title of

“THE MOUNT VERNON PAPERS.”

For these articles alone we have already paid Mr. Everett (for the benefit of the Ladies' Mount Vernon Association) the sum of TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS.

As an indication of the popularity of the LEDGER, we need only state the simple fact that its circulation is larger than that of any other TEN literary papers in the country. Its great success is owing to the facts that its proprietor secures the best writers in the country, and spares no expense in getting up the BEST FAMILY PAPER—a paper of high moral tone. The exalted reputation of its contributors, the practical and invariably pure and healthy character of all its articles, the care which is taken that not even one offensive word shall appear in its columns, and the superiority of its tales and sketches, have gained for the NEW YORK LEDGER a position that no literary paper has ever before reached. We feel, and always have felt, since the LEDGER attained its immense circulation, that a heavy responsibility rests upon us, and have endeavored to discharge that responsibility conscientiously, feeling confident that ultimately we should receive the thanks of thousands and tens of thousands of families.

As to the future, we are at a loss what to say. We prefer to PERFORM rather than to PROMISE. What we have heretofore done is known to our readers; they know what the LEDGER has been, and is now, and must therefrom judge what it will be hereafter. We can only say that among the regular contributors to the LEDGER are

GEORGE D. PRENTICE,
JOHN G. SAXE,
SYLVANUS COBB, JR.
EMERSON BENNETT,
T. S. ARTHUR,

WM. ROSS WALLACE,
CARLOS D. STUART,
COL. W. B. DUNLAP,
FANNY FERN,
MRS. SIGOURNEY,
MRS. SOUTHWORTH,

ALICE CARY,
EMMA ALICE BROWN,
SALLIE M. BRYAN,
MARY STANLEY GIBSON,
AUGUSTA MOORE,

and many eminent Lawyers, Clergymen, Professors in colleges, and others, who write for the LEDGER anonymously; and that our complete arrangements are such that the current expenses of the LEDGER are now and will constantly be at the rate of over three hundred thousand dollars per annum.

FACTS like these carry with them more weight than any comments that could be made, and comments will therefore be dispensed with. As we have already intimated, we shall leave promising to those who prefer to expend their force in that way, and content ourselves with doing what we can to make the LEDGER the most interesting and instructive FAMILY PAPER in the world.

THE NEW YORK LEDGER is published every Saturday, and sold at all the news-offices in every city and town throughout the country, and is mailed to subscribers at two dollars per annum; two copies are sent for three dollars. Any person obtaining eight subscribers at $1 50 each (which is our lowest Club rate), and sending us $12, will be entitled to one copy free. Terms invariably in advance.

The postage on the LEDGER to any part of the United States, paid quarterly or yearly in advance at the office where it is received, is only twenty-six cents a year. Canada subscribers must each send us twenty-six cents in addition to the subscription price of the LEDGER, to pay the American postage.

Subscribers must write their addresses, including the names of the place, county and State in which they reside, in a plain hand, so as to avoid mistakes.

No subscriptions are wanted from cities, large villages or other places where news offices are permanently established.

All communications must be addressed, postage paid, to

N.B.—The number of the LEDGER dated January 1st, 1859, will be a good one for subscriptions to date from, as in that number the “MOUNT VERNON PAPERS,” by the Hon. EDWARD EVERETT, will be commenced. Mr. EVERETT's articles will be copyrighted, so as to prevent publication in any other paper.

SEWING MACHINE,

Price from $50 to $100.

IS BEYOND ALL QUESTION THE BEST IN THE MARKET.

The first place in public estimation is justly accorded to the GROVER & BAKER Machine, for family sewing, for the following reasons :

- 1st. It is more simple and easily kept in order than any other Machine.
- 2d. It makes a seam which will not rip or ravel, though every third stitch be cut.
- 3d. It sews from two ordinary spools, and thus all trouble of winding thread is avoided, while the Machine can be adapted, by a mere change of spools, to all varieties of work.
- 4th. The machine runs silk, linen thread, and common spool cotton, with equal facility.
- 5th. The seam is as elastic as the most elastic fabric, so that it is free from all liability to break in washing, ironing, or otherwise.
- 6th. The stitch is more beautiful than any other made, either by hand or machine.

WHOLESOME BREAD.

JAMES PYLE'S
DIETETIC
SALERATUS.

HOUSEKEEPERS!

THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST.

This SALERATUS should be found in the culinary department of every house in this land. Its unquestionable purity and excellence in producing good BREAD, must bring it into general use. The wide-spread reputation it has already gained is the result of real merit, and shows the ability of the American people to discriminate in favor of a wholesome article.

JAMES PYLE'S
DIETETIC
SALERATUS.

There are thousands of sufferers from dyspepsia, decayed teeth, and other derangements of the system, brought on by the use of common caustic Saleratus. It is a sad spectacle, too, to look upon the "puny-faced child" of the present day, without constitution, and with its teeth all eaten out, and think of the cause being impurities in food.

How much longer, good mothers, is this state of things to last? Ask for

JAMES PYLE'S
DIETETIC
SALERATUS.

JAMES PYLE'S DIETETIC SALERATUS, which is FREE FROM EVERY IMPURITY, and as harmless to the stomach as flour itself.

If you want nice Biscuit, Cake, etc., you can find nothing equal to it. Tell your Grocer you want no other. No doubt he will tell you it is no better than any other, in order to get rid of his old stock, or something on which he can realize larger profit; but persevere until you get it, and JUDGE FOR YOURSELF.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

The readiness of unscrupulous rivals to imitate our labels, signifies much in our favor. The genuine is done up in pounds, halves and quarters, with the name of "JAMES PYLE" on each.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE,

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE, now more than seventeen years old, which was the first Journal in the world that appeared regularly on an imperial eight-page sheet at so low a price as two cents, and which has attained the unparalleled aggregate of more than 200,000 subscriptions, respectfully solicits its share of the patronage which the Metropolitan Press is henceforth to receive.

Within the present year, THE TRIBUNE has provided itself with a new and faster Press, at a cost of $30,000, merely that some of our subscribers may receive their papers a mail earlier than they otherwise might do. With correspondents at the most important points throughout the civilized world, and a staff of writers chosen from among the best in the country, we believe that even those who dislike the politics of our sheet concede to it frankness in avowing its convictions and ability in maintaining them. We appeal, then, to those who believe that an increased circulation of THE TRIBUNE would conduce to the political, intellectual, and moral well-being of the Republic, to aid us in effecting such increase.

THE DAILY TRIBUNE is printed on a large imperial sheet, and published every morning and evening (Sunday excepted), and mailed to subscribers for six dollars per annum; three dollars for six months.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is published every TUESDAY and FRIDAY, and contains all the Editorials of the Daily, with the Cattle, Horse, and General Markets reliably reported expressly for THE TRIBUNE; Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, and during the present Session of Congress it will contain a summary of Congressional doings, with the more important speeches. We shall, as heretofore, make THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE a Literary, as well as a Political and News paper, and we are determined that it shall remain in the front ranks of family papers.
